

THE COMANCHE CHIEF

COMANCHE, COMANCHE COUNTY, TEXAS AUGUST 30, 1935

NO. 5

THIRTY-THIRD YEAR

ASPHALT POURING BEGINS ON 10

20 Years Ago

From The Comanche Chief,
August 27, 1915

A break is likely with Germany over the sinking by the Germans of the White Star Liner, Arabic, when two Americans were killed. It is reported that Germany is anxious for a peace settlement, but the administration is not disposed to act until it has all the facts.

Miss Floy Cunningham will teach piano at the Mrs. J. P. Off residence for the benefit of the West Ward pupils. In a goat roping contest at the ball park Thursday afternoon a large crowd saw George Montgomery take first money at 17 seconds. P. B. Buck was second, taking the catch in 18 seconds. In McCollum won the cigar in 23 seconds, J. C. Montgomery's score was 33, Walter Langford 26, and J. B. Alcorn

Have us put new rubber tires on your buggy.—W. W. Kilpatrick & Son.

We are still buying blackeye peas at $2.50 per hundred payable in merchandise.—Higgintham's.

Dr. T. M. Rutherford returned last week from Dallas where he attended a series of lectures at the Southwestern Veterinary College. Dr. Rutherford tells us the next meeting of the Association will be in Comanche and an attendance of 50 is expected.

Regular examinations for County and State teachers certificates will be held at the court house September 2, 3 and 4.

An ice plant has been opened at Blanket, the first ice being packed and delivered Friday morning. Manager Smith will deliver ice in the city twice daily. The Blanket Signal.

A visitor who was in Comanche for the first time since 1909 last week expressed himself as amazed at the progress Comanche had made, citing the sidewalks around the court house and new side walks in the residence section, the West Ward school building, the new Masonic temple, the Comanche National bank Annex, the Davenport building, the Cotton Belt Depot and highway, and many new residences especially in the northwestern part of Comanche.

Comanche County was created by law in 1860 and was attached to Bell County for Judicial purposes until 1864 when it was attached to Coryell County. In 1866 the county was reorganized and the county seat was established at Cora. John Duncan of Atagorda who owned considerable land in Comanche County, through his agent, T. C. Frost, who later founded the Frost National Bank of San Antonio, donated 200 acres of land to the county with the proposal that the county seat be moved near the center. The removal was made to Comanche in 1868. Comanche City was incorporated by special act in 1873 and in 1880 the general municipal law was adopted in lieu of the special charter.

Comanche County will remain legally dry although the Dean Law was repealed in Saturday's election, according to Sheriff J. H. Reese and County Attorney C. C. Hampton.

The county was dry under a local option law at the time State and National prohibition went into effect and the local option laws now hold good unless repealed by the Legislature, local officers state.

Since the county as a whole is dry, no precinct nor subdivision can vote on the question of legalizing liquor, unless the county as a whole votes to repeal its local option law the officers explained.

There has been confusion in some quarters of the State as to the status of prohibition, but local officers will continue their efforts towards the enforcement of the Dean Law in this county.

The Legislature which is expected to meet in a special session September 16th, may make some new law explaining or amplifying the county local option laws, Sheriff Reese said.

Ralph (Buster) Carnes received a nice promotion last week when he was transferred from head of the A & P Store at Cross Plains to manager of the store of that company at Ranger.

Mr. Carnes began work in the local A & P Store under his brother, Pat Carnes, before being made manager of the Cross Plains store about 2 years ago.

A revival will begin at the Down Baptist Church Sunday night, September 1st, with Rev. A. A. Davis of Carbon doing the preaching.

Rev. J. L. Isbell is pastor of the church.

Luther Williams has taken over the Post Office Service Station according to an announcement made by him in another section of this paper.

Mr. Williams said he would handle exclusively Texaco products and would also do tire repairing, washing and greasing

Mrs. Haworth, widow of A. B. Haworth, Comanche attorney, had traveled extensively in Mexico gathering material for the plays she wrote. She also had collaborated in several songs with Mrs. W. D. Carroll of Comanche, who wrote the music.

The body was discovered by Mrs. Tavia McArthur, a neighbor, who became alarmed at Mrs. Haworth's absence, and Miss Alice Hayes.

Mrs. Haworth had been ill for some time, friends said.

(Continued On Page 5)

Russell Gives Reminiscences of Comanche Sixty Years Ago

SCHOOL GYM PLAN IS DISCUSSED

CAN BE BUILT WITHOUT ANY TAX INCREASE

Present Rate Could Be Divided to Take Care of Payment to Government On Bonds

An eighteen thousand dollar school gymnasium for Comanche without any increase in taxes now seems probable according to an announcement issued by the City School Board.

The Federal Government proposes to give a little more than $8,000 for the building and the remaining $10,000 would have to be taken care of by a bond issue. This could be done without any increase in the valuation of property, members of the school board point out. The Government will buy the bonds and charge only 4 per cent interest and these can be paid annually over a period of 20 years, thus making the annual payment comparatively small.

The one dollar school tax is now divided, 65 cents for maintenance and 35 cents for bonds, and if the new bonds are voted the arrangement would likely be changed to 40 per cent for bonds and 60 for maintenance.

The building if constructed would also house the agricultural department and all band lessons and practice would be held there. School Board members say that they do not wish to undertake a bond issue unless it met with the approval of the people. A committee was appointed to discuss the matter with the business people and of 25 who had been interviewed up to noon Monday, 23 expressed themselves in favor (Continued On Last Page)

Two Bales Reach Gins Here at About Same Time and the Premium Is Divided

Comanche received its first cotton for the 1935 season Monday, August 26th, when two bales were brought in, one by John Smart who raised the cotton on the Mrs. N. R. Lindsey farm northwest of Comanche, and the other by R. R. Richie who grew his bale on the Charlie Allen farm south of Comanche.

So nearly at the same time did the two men arrive at different gins in Comanche with their cotton, it was decided that the premium which amounted to approximately $50, should be divided equally between the two.

Smart's bale was ginned at the Raubut Gin and the Richie cotton at the Red Gin by Dick Shelton. Both bales were sold to Sherwood McDonald for 11 cents per pound.

Mr. Smart said his cotton would average a bale to about every five acres.

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

FIRST COTTON OF THE SEASON GINNED MONDAY

Two Bales Reach Gins Here at About Same Time and the Premium Is Divided

Comanche received its first cotton for the 1935 season Monday, August 26th, when two bales were brought in, one by John Smart who raised the cotton on the Mrs. N. R. Lindsey farm northwest of Comanche, and the other by R. R. Richie who grew his bale on the Charlie Allen farm south of Comanche.

So nearly at the same time did the two men arrive at different gins in Comanche with their cotton, it was decided that the premium which amounted to approximately $50, should be divided equally between the two.

Smart's bale was ginned at the Raubut Gin and the Richie cotton at the Red Gin by Dick Shelton. Both bales were sold to Sherwood McDonald for 11 cents per pound.

Mr. Smart said his cotton would average a bale to about every five acres.

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

MERCHANTS OF EARLY DAYS ARE CITED IN BRIEF

Location of Business Firms of Old-Time Comanche Recalled By Early Settler

(By L. B. Russell)

I landed in Comanche for the first time, on the night of Tuesday, October 10, 1876, at about eleven o'clock, from a day's drive from Gatesville in the old stage coach driven by W. P. Cook. We had stopped all night at Gatesville from Waco on Monday, driven the first day by a coachman named Prather. We were driven to the home of James J. Franklin, occupied later by W. P. Cook and which was destroyed finally by somebody dynamiting it. It was about where Sherwood McDonald's residence is now. We spent that first night with the Franklins, and the second night, Wednesday, we staid at the home of the late G. A. Beeman, which was the small stone building north of Mrs. J. P. Cook's home.

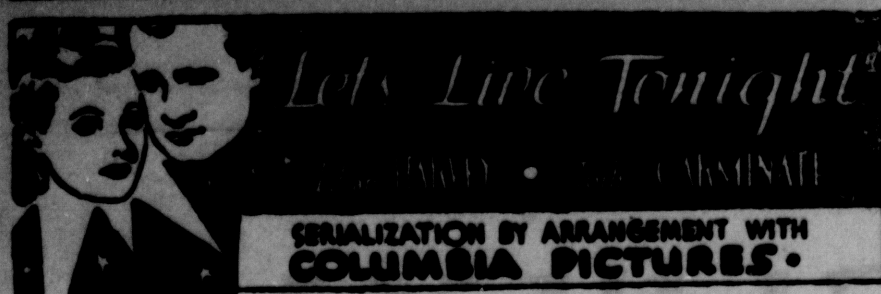

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook's shop. All these buildings were of wood, built box house style. The only house on this block north of Reddin and Turner's drugstore was a dwelling of the pioneer (Continued On Page 5)

As I now recall the village, town, or city of Comanche at that time, the block on which the Brightman Garage now stands was almost vacant, except a drug store in a wooden building owned by Reddin and Turner. West of that but not quite adjoining it was a gunsmith shop of James J. Franklin. I have a vague recollection which may be confused, that Joe Stanell either occupied the shop with Franklin, or had one next to it. Next west of that was J. P. Cook

CHAPTER I

To say that the Riviera is gay, charming, teeming with vague adventures that lurk in the shadow of the Casino—to say these things is unnecessary. We know of all this without being told again and again. And so, we won't tell you that the Riviera is gay, charming and teeming with vague adventures, but will content ourselves with an individual tale that is, in itself, gay, charming and—understand what we mean, of course—

The veranda of the yacht club was crowded. They were always gala events—the motor boat races. They offered a different thrill from the spinning wheel of the Casino. Mrs. Mott, late of Texas, was very thrilled, and the sandwich she was munching was exceptionally good. Lily Montrose, big, buxom and American, was enjoying the races, also.

"I told you you'd meet all the important people on the Riviera," she chattered. "There comes Ozy Featherstone. You know who he is—writes a gossip column for the London 'Sun'." She spoke confidentially. "He'll get your name in the paper."

Mrs. Mott was impressed. "Really?"

Ozy Featherstone approached and was properly introduced. Naturally, the conversation turned to the race.

"Can't tell one from the other," said Mrs. Mott, staring at the speeding boats.

"Nicky will win," said Ozy, slightly bored. "He always does."

"Who's Nicky? Some one Ah ought know?"

"You've heard of Nicholas Kerry,"

Nicky laughed. "Don't be modest—people won't believe we're brothers. Well, did I do a good job, Mrs. Routledge? I brought him up, you know."

"It's the only thing," said Mrs. Routledge, smiling, "you've ever done that I approve of."

And then Margot was coming toward them. "Darling! You were going to call for me—"

Nicky took her hands. "And I completely forgot!"

"Well, you might at least have the grace to lie about it."

"I never lie to women. It's too much trouble."

Margot laughed. "Isn't he a swine!"

Then Brian was introduced, and Margot and Nicky strolled off together. Brian turned to Mrs. Routledge. "Is Nicky—very fond of her?"

"Nicky, my dear, is too fond of women—to be really fond of any woman."

Brian smiled loyally. "He is a terrific fellow, isn't he?"

"Terrific! Oh—my daughter will be here in a few days. She's motor-ing down from Paris. I want you to know her."

In a few moments, Nicky broke away to rejoin his brother. Mrs. Routledge took Nicky's arm. "Brian tells me he's only staying a few days. I am disappointed."

"He's a big business man, you know, in London," Nicky spoke with a trace of pride in his voice. "One of the engineering wizards of the younger generation!"

"Well, there should be one useful member of the family," Ozy Featherstone, staggering and in moist spirits, grabbed

HONORED ON BIRTHDAY

Emma Jean Allen entertained a small group of boys and girls Monday on her seventh birthday. Selected games were played followed by refreshments of punch, cookies, and candy. The guests were: Eugene Butler, Cecil Atwood, Billie Lou Kerley, Betty Joe Andrews, Marcel Kerley, Charlotte McNeil, Sonny Boy McNeil, Frances Holmes, Mary Helen and Junior Allen.

The following morning found Brian busily studying a set of blueprints. He called Nicky over. "I suppose you know the firm's bidding on that new Chilean railroad bridge. Well, this is my shear diagram—and I'm a bit worried about it."

Nicky stared over his brother's shoulders for a long moment. "How about increasing the maximum bending moment to WLD? See what I mean?"

Brian turned to him eagerly. "You are one of the greatest engineers in the world. Why don't you come back?"

Nicky shrugged. "It doesn't amuse me any more. When you came into the firm, my lad—I stepped out. And I'm staying out."

"All the same, I wish you'd think it over—and come back to London with me."

Nicky grinned. "London—in November. I'd just as soon go to the Arctic! Pleasant climate. Matter of fact, I'm leaving for Monte Carlo—to pick up my yacht. Then—a long cruise—following the sun—"

"But—"

Brian frowned. "You

In fact, there was but one chip left. Nicky leaned over her shoulder, took the chip, and before the astonished girl could say anything, placed it on Number 17. The wheel was whirled. Fast... fast... slow... and presto change! the young lady had won chips—loads of them!

Calmly (Nicky was always calm), he cashed in the chips and stuffed the sheaf of franc notes into the young lady's purse. When the young lady, whom we'll call Kay, for that's her name, caught her breath, she managed:

"I—I can't accept all this!"

Nicky smiled. "But it's yours. You won it."

"Half of it belongs to you," Kay held out several of the bank notes. Nicky hesitated a moment, studying her youthfulness. As though inspired, the idea of continuing the game became an appealing obsession.

Nicky bowed with mock gravity. "Please—I couldn't take money from a lady. After all, I have some pride left."

"Oh, I'm so sorry. I'd heard this was a bad season over here. Look! if I were a girl, you'd take it, wouldn't you? I mean—you could use the money—"

Nicky smiled bravely. "Perhaps Mademoiselle knows what it means to go hungry?"

Kay was sympathetic. "No—but it must be dreadful. Particularly here—with people throwing away money so foolishly. It's enough to make a socialist or communist—or something—out of anybody! Tell me—if it isn't too personal—"

Nicky bowed again. "I am what you might call one of the great unemployed."

Kay's eyes became radiant. "Once

LOVELL TO PREACH ON STREETS HERE

Johnnie Lovell, pastor of the Old Time Religion Church of the Air, of Dublin, will preach on the streets of Comanche Saturday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock, using a loud speaker, according to his announcement.

Lovell is in the midst of a revival at Dublin.

Kay's eyes opened wide. "Oh, look!" She pointed to a large, graceful yacht anchored in the bay. She didn't know, of course, it was Nicky's. "Gorgeous, isn't she?"

"Not bad at all!"

"Probably belongs to some old millionaire—with a fat stomach and a bald head!"

Kay laughed. "Yes—let's give him a red nose!"

Nicky looked up. "The octogenarian millionaire's probably gone ashore tonight. What if you say we go aboard—and have a look around?"

"Would we dare?" Kay was excited.

"Let's take a chance."

In a few minutes more they were at the top of the ladder leading to the deck of the ship. Stealthily, they stepped on the deck.

"Maybe we'd better not—" whispered Kay.

"Let's look the old tub over. I've

ing for me— And tomorrow all this will be gone. All this—magic! I've had so much of hotels—and crowds—people that didn't matter. Please let me stay a little longer."

Nicky hesitated, then: "All right, my dear." He turned and pressed a button. Almost immediately Weems appeared.

"Yes, sir?"

"Mademoiselle will stay on board tonight."

Weems bowed and moved away with a doleful sigh. Kay looked at Nicky, startled.

"Oh, but I'm afraid I—"

Nicky smiled. "I shall be sleeping on shore." He bowed. "Sweet dreams."

Nicky returned in the morning. There was breakfast—a charming affair—and a delightful swim in the cool waters. Morning turned into noon, noon into evening—a very ordinary procedure—but not so for Kay—oh, not for Kay! Alone, on the deck, her cigarettes glowed in the dark. Impulsively, Kay reached out to clasp Nicky's hand.

"I know it's late—but, oh, it's been so heavenly—every minute of it—"

Nicky spoke lightly. "I'm rather sorry I brought you here."

"Why?"

"Because I'm afraid this boat will never seem the same. On nights like this—I'll always be seeing you—your little ghost will haunt me—"

Kay turned away. "That's very pretty—but I don't want to be a ghost." She turned back again, impudently. "Monte—you told me I was too romantic. Perhaps I am—"

GAS WITH IKE PHIFER

Our old customers come because they have tried my gas. Independent Gasoline and Lubricants. Why don't you give our gas a trial? You will be pleased with its performance and it will save you money. We handle kerosene and naphtha. South of City Highway—like Phifer.

Lady Took Cardui When Weak, Nervous

"I can't say enough for Cardui. I talked all day," enthusiastically writes Mrs. L. E. Caldwell, of Statesville, N. C. "I have used Cardui at intervals for twenty-five years," she adds. "My trouble in the beginning was weakness and nervousness. I read of Cardui in a newspaper and decided right then to try it. It soon before I had taken half a bottle Cardui I was stronger and was up and around."

Thousands of women testify Cardui cured them. If it does not benefit you, consult a physician.

NOTICE

I have taken over the Post Office Service Station and will handle Texas Company Products exclusively.

Washing — Greasing — Tire Repairing

Luther Williams

Quick Relief for Chills and Fever

and Other Effects of Malaria!

Don't put up with the suffering Malaria—the teeth-chattering chills and the burning fever. Get rid of Malaria, getting the infection out of your system. At the same time, it builds up your system against further attack.

Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic contains tasteless quinine which kills the infection in the blood. It also contains iron which builds up the blood and helps it overcome the effects of Malaria as well as fortify against re-infection. These are the effects you want for COMPLETE relief. Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic is pleasant to take and absolutely safe, even for children. No bitter taste of quinine. Get a bottle today and be forearmed against Malaria for sale at all drug stores. Now two sizes—50c and $1. The $1 size contains 4 times as much as the 50c size and you 25% more for your money.

"I never lie to women. It's too much trouble." (Posed by Tullio Carminati and Tala Birelli) said Lily Montrose. "The most famous bachelor in Europe—"

"Positively devastating," said Ozy. "He makes old women young—and young women old. He's the only man I know who treats women as badly as they deserve!"

At another part of the veranda were Mrs. Routledge and the lovely Countess Margot de Legere. Margot, French and twenty-five, was charming, and desperately beautiful on this day. If a woman could be presumptuous about Nicky and claim some sort of right to him, Margot felt this singular honor should be hers, but as Mrs. Routledge said as she watched Nicky's best friend the water:

"Well, I guess every woman in Europe has felt that way about him at some time—with the exception of myself and two old ladies." She smiled, and added, "And I'm not one about the old ladies!"

Margot jumped, her face white. "Look! What's happening?"

Nicky's boat was swerving crazily, and Nicky's brother, Brian, who was holding second place securely, forged ahead. There was a concerted roar from the spectators—Nicky's boat had overturned! There was a little mysterious smile on Nicky's face as the accident occurred—for it really wasn't an accident. Nicky's brother, Brian, who was younger, brother, and Nicky knew how much Brian wanted to win this race. So, it was quite a thrill to the gallery and to Brian as the dignified, grey-bearded old French Duke awarded the silver cup to the winner.

"The last two years this cup has been won by Monsieur Nicholas Kerry. Now see me my pleasure to present to his younger brother."

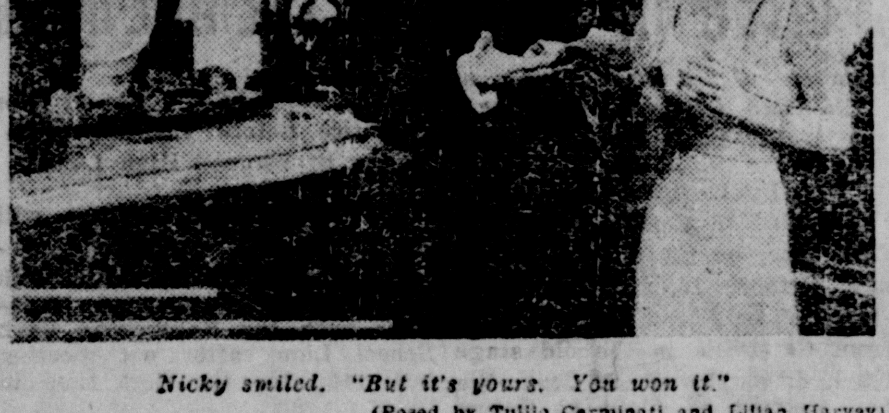

And then came the afternoon cocktails at Mrs. Routledge's. Nicky, young, handsome, brilliant, his thirty-third was just entering, with Brian behind him.

"Nicky!" Mrs. Routledge was surprised—and delighted. "I was afraid you weren't coming."

Nicky smiled and took the proffered hand. "I promised to bring Brian. I told him you were the oldest woman I know."

Mrs. Routledge laughed. "That makes me sound so dull! And you're Brian?" She turned to Nicky's younger brother. "You only arrived yesterday—and you won the race today. I think it's too brilliant—"

"I shouldn't have won it—" Brian was embarrassed.

Nicky smiled. "But it's yours. You won it." (Posed by Tullio Carminati and Lillian Harvey) can't go on always—just—following the sun—"

Nicky, I hate to preach, but you'd better settle down."

Brian had seen the young lady leave earlier that morning, with Nicky throwing a good-bye kiss from the window.

"Now, I ask you," said Nicky. "Is there anything more depressing than the spectacle of a bachelor settling down? The freemasonry—the pipe and trowel—and rheumatism! No, thanks. I'm not having any."

"But—I've always hoped you wouldn't go on being a bachelor—I've never been interested in any woman for more than a week. Perhaps that's by misfortune. Perhaps not."

Brian spoke sincerely. "If I ever fell in love, I'd love her all my life!"

"I'm sure you would, old boy. And that's as it should be," Nicky shrugged. "But for me—women are something to dine with—dance with—and forget. Oh—More coffee?"

"You mean, there hasn't ever been anyone?"

"Shall I let you in on a secret? There's one lady I've lived with—for twelve years!"

Brian gasped.

"Minnie!" said Nicky, pointing to the parrot swinging on the perch.

Nicky leaned over the rail of his yacht, staring at the bright, glittering lights of the Riviera which threw sharp pin-points of radiance on the water. In direct contrast was the smotherly-flowing path of the moon's glow. There was no doubting the romantic implication of the night.

Weems, Nicky's butler, valet and general man-about-the-house, spoke a little dolefully. "We didn't engage a table ashore, sir."

"Well," said Nicky amiably. "I haven't any plans for dinner."

Weems was shocked. "You aren't dining alone sir? In Monte Carlo?"

"One of the few adventures left in life—is not always knowing who you're going to dine with!"

"Good-night, Weems."

"Night, sir."

Nicky descended the ladder to the small speedboat waiting for him. Nicky couldn't know then how close he really was to adventure. But, then, none of us ever do.

Nicky's first move was to the gambling casino. There would be beautiful women and the thrill of the game. There were beautiful women, also some not so beautiful, but it was one of the beautiful ones that caught Nicky's eye—and held it a considerable time.

The young lady was playing the wheel and doing very, very badly

"I can say it now..." Her voice was a whisper. "I love you." (Posed by Tullio Carminati and Lillian Harvey) always wanted to see how these capitalists lived!"

They turned, startled, as a third voice was heard. It was the steward.

"Do you wish something, sir?"

"Oh!" Kay stepped back. "We were just going!"

Nicky stepped forward bravely. "A bottle of champagne, please."

"Champagne, sir?"

Nicky nodded. "Champagne. You know—that stuff with bubbles!"

The steward blinked, then turned and hurried away. Kay turned frightened eyes to Nicky.

"Now we will be put off!"

Nicky sank into a wicker chair. "Then let's enjoy it while it lasts. Sit down, Carlotta. Make yourself at home. Cigarette?"

"Monte, in just about ten seconds some muscle-bound sailors are going to rush up and throw us overboard!" Kay turned suddenly.

"And here they come!"

But the stewards were bringing champagne—to Kay's utter amazement. She bent close and whispered in his ear. "How'd you get away with it?"

"I have an honest face."

For a few moments, the peace of the night, the moon and the enchanting moon made a sublime combination. But the enchantment vanished with Weems' voice.

"Beg pardon, sir. Will you be sleeping on board tonight?"

Kay gasped. "Oh! This is your boat?"

"Weems," said Nicky crossly, "you're a blockhead."

Kay began to laugh. "Oh, you beast! Aren't you ashamed of yourself! I was feeling so sorry for you! Poor but honest!"

"And now you find I'm neither poor nor honest."

Kay smiled, her voice was low. "I'm afraid you're all things I'd hoped you would be."

"So you believe it was Fate that arranged for us to meet?"

Kay sighed. "I suppose every girl dreaming of Prince Charming will come along—"

"Prince Charming? He's only a myth—like the stork."

"Why do you insist on destroying all my illusions? Is that kind?"

Nicky smiled. "Perhaps it's the kindest thing possible. You see, my dear—your very romantic matter."

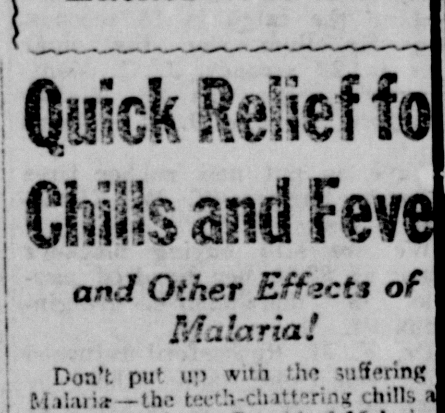

"At least that's better than not believing in anything!"

"I like you," said Nicky gently. "I don't want you to be hurt." He straightened suddenly. "I'm taking you home. It's midnight."

Kay smiled. "But I'm not Cinderella!"

Nicky took her hands and lifted her to her feet. "Get your over-shoes and mittens. Home you go!"

Kay pleaded wistfully. "Please—don't let I only have that dreary hotel to go to—it doesn't matter when I get there Nobody's waiting for me— And tomorrow all this will be gone. All this—magic! I've had so much of hotels—and crowds—people that didn't matter. Please let me stay a little longer."

"I can say it now..." Her voice was a whisper. "I love you." (Posed by Tullio Carminati and Lillian Harvey)

Nicky hesitated, then: "All right, my dear." He turned and pressed a button. Almost immediately Weems appeared.

"Yes, sir?"

"Mademoiselle will stay on board tonight."

Weems bowed and moved away with a doleful sigh. Kay looked at Nicky, startled.

"Oh, but I'm afraid I—"

Nicky smiled. "I shall be sleeping on shore." He bowed. "Sweet dreams."

Nicky returned in the morning. There was breakfast—a charming affair—and a delightful swim in the cool waters. Morning turned into noon, noon into evening—a very ordinary procedure—but not so for Kay—oh, not for Kay! Alone, on the deck, her cigarettes glowed in the dark. Impulsively, Kay reached out to clasp Nicky's hand.

"I know it's late—but, oh, it's been so heavenly—every minute of it—"

Nicky spoke lightly. "I'm rather sorry I brought you here."

"Why?"

"Because I'm afraid this boat will never seem the same. On nights like this—I'll always be seeing you—your little ghost will haunt me—"

Kay turned away. "That's very pretty—but I don't want to be a ghost." She turned back again, impudently. "Monte—you told me I was too romantic. Perhaps I am—"

POSTED NOTICE!

I have permitted people to camp and fish in my pasture on the Leon River for the past several years. None have been denied this privilege. But there are some few careless persons that have stripped buds from my pine trees, taken tools from my barns and mistreated my livestock and I am now forced to make this public notice that my pasture is closed to the public and any person or persons trespassing in this pasture will be dealt with according to the law concerning trespassing.

W. S. Price, Gustine, Texas.

MRS. MILLICAN HOSTESS WITH LAWN PARTY

Mrs. Curtiss E. Millican entertained a number of young people with a lawn party Thursday evening from 7:30 until 11:00.

A number of games were enjoyed after which refreshments of iced tea, lemonade and strawberry cake were served.

Those present were Alma Ruth Davenport, Justice Edwards, Ava Wilson, Billie Young, Madea Marshall, Garland Boyd, Verdell Marshall, Niven Jackson, Natsal Johnson, Herbert Davenport, Dortha Davenport and Gwendol Masters.

Bibb

Louis Fagan of Carbon spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Fagan.

Mrs. Gus Cheatham of West Texas visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. I. C. Russell last week.

Riley Warren and Ambrose Pollock entered the CCC Camp at Dublin Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Wilson and son, Roy Roberts and wife of Oklahoma visited relatives here last week.

Ruby Fagan and Mrs. Dick Burns and baby are visiting at Carbon this week.

Virgil Tankersly is visiting his mother, who is ill at Snyder.

MISS LEWIS HOSTESS

Miss Sammie Lewis was hostess to the "Scottie" Bridge Club Tuesday afternoon. Sally Ruth Barkley took low score and cut prizes and Elizabeth Jean Littlejohn received high score prize. Refreshments of orange ade and cookies were served.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Bids will be received by Comanche County, at the Court House at Comanche, Texas, until 10 o'clock a. m. on September 9th, 1935, for the purchase of one or more Caterpillar 50 H. P. Wide Gauge Diesel Tractor and 66 Power Controlled Grader, and notice is given that warrants will be issued in the maximum sum of $7000.40, payable serially, last maturity not later than 4-15, 1942, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, interest payable semi-annually.

The right is reserved to reject all bids.

R. S. McCHAREN, County Judge, Comanche County, Texas.

NOTICE TO BIDDERS

Bids will be received by Comanche County, at the Court House at Comanche, Texas, until 10 o'clock a. m. on September 14, 1935, for the purchase of one or more Caterpillar Diesel Auto Patrol Single Tandem Drive and a second hand Alis Chalmers Tractor to be taken as part payment, and notice is given that warrants will be issued in the maximum sum of $4,439.00, payable serially, last maturity not later than April 15, 1940, bearing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum, interest payable semiannually.

The right is reserved to reject all bids.

R. S. McCHAREN, County Judge, Comanche County, Texas.

J. W. Hood and son of Slaton, G. F. Hood and daughter of Sylvester visited their mother, Mrs. N. C. Hood last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Knight and Mrs. A. B. Masters are visiting in Alabama.

PROBAK JUNIOR

4 blades for 10c

10 for 25c

25 for 59c

SHAVING comfort like an old-shave low in price with the announcement of Probak Junior—the remarkable new double-edge razor blade. Think of it! You get 25 blades, smooth-shaving blades, uniform in quality, for only 59¢. You'll wonder how each fine blade can be sold for so little money.

Probak Junior is the product of unequalled manufacturing methods and machine skill. This blade is automatically tempered, ground, honed and sharpened—gives you wonderful shaving satisfaction. Try Probak Junior and see for yourself. Get them today from your dealer.

Probak Junior fits all Gillette and Probak razors

PROBAK JUNIOR

MADE IN U.S.A. T.M. REG. U.S. PAT. OFF. OTHER PATENTS PENDING

BUY YOUR PROBAK JUNIOR RAZOR BLADES FROM

Howard Kilpatrick

Shelf Hardware and Implement

alotabs

BILIOUSNESS

Herring Co.

Plumbers

The Comanche Chief

Published by COMANCHE PUBLISHING CO.
FARMERS

Printed at the Press Office at Comanche, Texas, on Tuesday
Subscription Price $1.00 Per Year

CLASSIFIED ADS
For Good Used Cars, See Clark's Garage.

NOTICE—Now is the time to paint that house.—Phone 1112, Luther Dixon, painter and paper-
hanger.

FOR SALE—3 Electric Chick Brooders, capacity 500 chicks each; Also a New Perfection 5-burner Coal Oil Range in first class condition.—H. J. R. Gille,
Telephone 89.

STOCKMEN SAVE—Use Durham's Red Steer Screw Worm Killer and cut your screw and fleeceworm bills in half. It kills quickly and heals better. Every bottle guaranteed at Reese Drug Co.

FOR SALE—House and lot in Comanche, near square. Also 123 acre farm, 5 miles east of Comanche.—A. J. Sparks, Comanche Route 3.

GUSTINE WRECKING SHOP—
I will grind corn at my mill at Gustine any time. Also have 2 wood cook stoves for sale and a 2 wheel trailer. Plenty of used parts for automobiles.
—W. A. Chambers, Gustine,
Texas.

INDIGESTION—Allen's Gas Tablets will stop immediately gas on the stomach, indigestion, heart burn. Money back guarantee.
Only 25c.—Service Drug Store.

RAMS AND BILLIES—Ramboullette Rams and Angora Billies of the best blood money can buy.
—T. H. Jackson, Sipe Springs,
Texas.

FOR SALE—165 acre farm, 6 1-2 miles northwest from Comanche. About 70 acres in cultivation. 5 room box house, barn, cribs, and 4 poultry houses. Entire place fenced and cross fenced;
goat proof; 7 acres in fruit, berries and grapes; New windmill, good water; 50 pecan trees on place; $20 per acre, part cash, balance good terms.—J. N.
Springer, Route 2, Comanche.

FOR SALE—Have service station and garage with living quarters in rear, and stock of groceries for sale. Also house and lot for sale.—R. W. Newman, Proctor, Texas.

NOTICE—I have started the operation of my feed grinding mill.
Will go to your farm and grind.
Also have one stationary and one portable mill for sale.—John Carroll, Howard Motor Company,
Phone 119.

Miss Janette Blatherwick of Coleman, who recently visited Miss Ozelle Lane here, underwent a major operation at a Coleman hospital last week.

NOTICE—You can still buy that good Octane Gasoline at Frank Phifer's Filling Station at money saving prices. We sell Kerosene and Naphtha. Don't forget the place on Sidney Street.—Frank Phifer.

NOTICE—Now is the time to
paint that house.—Phone 373,
Luther Dixon, painter and paper-
hanger.

HOUSEWIVES—Rid your house of ants with Expello Ant Poison. This poison was made according to U. S. Department of Agriculture formula kills the entire colony and is inexpensive. For sale by Reese Drug Co.

MOHAIR WANTED—We are now in the market for mohair.
See us before selling.—Brightman & Son.

OPENING SEPTEMBER 9th—
My lunch room and boarding house at my home Northwest of the High School. Special lunches for school children.—Mrs. Lon Part.

46th ANNUAL SALE—We have 173 used tires for sale, priced from 50c up.—Dunlop Tire Store.

POSITION WANTED—Expert
lady bookkeeper wants position.
Experienced in all lines bookkeeping and clerical work. Four years experience in bank and store.—Write Bookkeeper, care
of The Chief, Comanche, Texas.

FOR RENT—Store Building soon to be vacated by Durham Pecan Co.—K. L. Macon.

WANTED—A few hundred lbs.
cotton tagging certificates. The price must be right.—K. L. Macon.

PIANO WANTED—Will pay cash
for a good used instrument of the right kind. See Mrs. Robert
Eaton or Mrs. Tom F. Reese.

POSTED AND TRESPASSING
NOTICE—I will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law any party trespassing on my land.—
Verna Mayers.

FOR SALE—3 truck loads of good Peaches. Will have them at Edwards Wagon Yard between 10 and 11 o'clock.—Evan and Mackay.

AIRMAID HOSIERY—Last Longer. We have now in stock hosiery selling at 79c pair—Thrifty Hosiery, "true to its name." Ideal for school wear.—Service Drug Store.

FOR SALE—A set of blacksmith tools; gasoline engine, air com-pressor and tank; All complete.
—E. S. Gamblin, Hassa, Texas.

SHOOTING GALLERY
Try your marksmanship at our shooting gallery located on the east side of the square near the Hi-Way Cafe. In addition to the gallery we have a doll rack, and a set of 10-pins.—Dixon Shooting Gallery, East Side of Square.

FOR SALE—My home two blocks northeast of square. Five rooms and bath. Modern conveniences; garage, cellar, garden and lot,
conveniently located to Grammar School and churches. Would consider good span of mules or pick-up as part payment. See Ed Burt at Comanche Wholesale Grocery Co.

VINEYARDS—We are still selling Yukon's Flour at $2.00 per sack. No better flour at any price. We handle all kinds lunch meats, fresh butter, fresh eggs, sliced bacon, etc. Trade with us and save.—Vineyards Grocery.

JUST THINK—A pint of Wray's Rich Ice Cream for only 15c at the Phillips system.

MILK COW FOR SALE—Three week old calf. An excellent milk cow. See Jess Atwood or Telephone 137.

WANTED—Refined, unencumbered, settled housekeeper for family of one. Good salary to reliable lady able to drive a car and milk a cow.—Mrs. G. A.
Bruten, Telephone 222.

STRAYED OR STOLEN—Heavy set bay 2 year old filly. No brand. Lost from the Cooper pasture near Lamkin.—Geo. R.
Ross, Gustine, Texas.

NOTICE—Reopening the Farmers Mill. Have installed a new Hammer Mill and want your custom grinding. Try the Gille Laying Mash and our own cow feed.
—Farmers Mill.

WOOD COOK STOVE—For Sale.
Good condition. Will sell cheap.
See Mrs. Allen or Telephone 331.

NOTICE—I have started operation of my feed grinding mill.
Will go to your farm and grind.
Want to buy bundled Hegari.
See me at Howard Motor Company.—John Carroll.

CLOVER SEED FOR SALE—
White Bloom Bi-annual Variety; grown in the county for 20 years and is well adapted to growth here; $8.00 per hundred. Will sell any amount.—C. F. Denay, Comanche, Texas.

FOR SALE—Good house and lot for sale on easy terms if desired.
Good six room house, all modern conveniences, for rent. Phone 390-2R.—J. D. Smoot, Comanche,
Texas.

FOR SALE—One Peanut Thresher in fair condition. Will sell at a real bargain.—Neel Bros., Lamkin, Texas.

FEED MILLS—I am agent for the Papec Feed Grinding Mill, and can supply your needs in large or small mills. See or phone me at Howard Motor Company.
No. 119.

DANCING STUDIO—Announcing the opening in Comanche of a dancing studio by Mrs. Lon Smith of Brownwood at an early date.
Those interested please see Mrs.
Park Huntington or Telephone 141-2R.

RADIO TUBES—Call No. 5. We have a tester that will test your tubes accurately. No charge. A complete stock of R. C. A. tubes and B. & C. batteries.—Service Drug Store.

FOR SALE—Breakfast Room
Suite. See Mrs. I. M. Edmondson or telephone 491.

STOVE FOR SALE—Have a good 4-burner Perfection Cook Stove for sale.—Leston Bain at B & W Kear Co.

PONY DISC—Have good John Deere Pony Disc Plow for sale at a bargain.—Fagan Chevrolet Company.

FOUND—Valuable tire and tube, mounted on practically new wheel.—Call at office of J. H.
Reese, Sheriff, Comanche.

WANT TO BUY—A 3 or 4 room house to be moved to my farm.
Write O. J. Moore, Sipe Springs,
Texas.

WANTED—Cow to milk for feed.
Fred Huse, at Chief Office.

LOST—A female Fox Terrier pup black with brown spots and white breast. Answers to name of Blackie.—Notify Mrs. Will Randalls, Phone 99.

JEWELRY BARGAINS
I am leaving town soon, and am offering some real bargains
in jewelry, etc. Anyone who has repair work in my shop will please call for same at once.—
J. B. Hamilton, Jeweler.

JONES GROCERY
You will find our store a convenient place to trade and you are always welcome whether you buy or not. Our groceries are reasonably priced and no one will appreciate your business more than we. Fall will soon be here and as soon as it rains, you will need seed for fall gardens. We are always headquarters for garden and field seed.—E. H. Jones.

MISS BOREN IS TO TEACH HOME ECONOMICS
IN DE LEON HIGH
Miss Margaret Boren, of Baird, has been elected Home Economics teacher in the De Leon High School.

Miss Boren is the daughter of Supt. Boren of the Baird schools and taught last year at Teague.

Mrs. Shelton In Stephenville Now
With Cox Store
Mrs. Nan Shelton, who has been making her home in Comanche in recent years, has located in Stephenville and accepted a position in the ready-to-wear department at R. E. Cox Dry Goods Company, says the Stephenville Empire-Tribune. She took up her new duties Monday morning and is now meeting friends of the store and otherwise becoming familiar with merchandise to be offered during the coming fall and winter season.

For a period of several years Mrs. Shelton was in business for herself at Comanche and during that time became known and recognized for her unusual knowledge of ready-to-wear merchandise.

She is well known in Stephenvill, having lived in that city many years prior to the time she moved to Comanche with her family in 1920. Her husband, the late Will Shelton, was for many years prominent in business and civic affairs of Stephenville.

Friends of the family are pleased to know that Mrs. Shelton is back in Stephenville, the Empire-Tribune says.

For several years Mrs. Shelton was connected with Bettis and Gibbs in Comanche, later with Shelton & Jackson, and then her own business, before leaving several months ago to visit relatives in California and Oklahoma.

Cockroaches
To banish these pests in a hurry, just sprinkle Bu-hach across their trails (following them to their burrows if possible) and in cracks and crevices.

Bu-hach makes short work of insect pests though it is guaranteed safe for human beings and animals. In Handy Sifter Cans at Service Drug Store, Grocery, Seed Store.

25¢ 50¢ 75¢ 1.25
BUHACH
INSECT POWDER

McNATT FAMILY HOLDS GATHERING HERE
The E. E. McNatt family had a reunion last week when their son, Glenn, who is attending a Fort Worth business college, and their daughter, Mrs. W. E. Cick and her husband of Port Arthur; and Mrs. McNatt's sisters, Mrs. M. R. Johnson of Detroit, Michigan, Mrs. R. M. Wilhite of Wichita Falls, Mrs. Victor Myers and Mrs. W. W. McNatt of Port Neches and Mr. McNatt's brother, W. W. McNatt of Port Neches were present.

It was the first time that so great a number of the relatives had been together at one time within several years.

FURNITURE REPAIRING
I am now located in the former Dublin Creamery Building, first floor south of the Fagan Chevrolet Company. I do general furniture repairing, wood work and upholstering. You may have a piece of furniture that you are not now using that I can put in good shape at a small cost.—Walter Roberson.

Coleman Urges
More Industries
For Comanche
Former Mayor M. Coleman, in an address before the Lions Club Tuesday urged more industries
for Comanche.

Comanche is becoming known all over the State as a market where diversified farm products are being sold to truckers, and not only are being taken to every part of Texas, but to other states, he said.

More industries with a daily pay roll would make Comanche one of the best towns in the State, the Ex-Mayor concluded.

JEWELRY BARGAINS
I am leaving town soon, and
am offering some real bargains
in jewelry, etc. Anyone who has repair work in my shop will
please call for same at once.—
J. B. Hamilton, Jeweler.

FREE!
COMPLETE SETS OF
Wm. ROGERS & Son SILVERWARE
for coupons in all socks of Carnation
FLOUR
A Trial Will Prove the Worth of This Flour.
FOR SALE BY CITY GROCERY
PHONE 343

Mrs. W. B. Payne Buried Monday at Oakwood Cemetery
Funeral services for Mrs. W.
B. Payne, formerly of Comanche, were conducted Monday afternoon at the home of her son, S. S. Payne, here, with Rev. M.
S. Leveridge, pastor of the Methodist Church, officiating. Interment was in Oakwood Cemetery.
Fall bearers were M. Coleman,
Jim Moody, Bunk Vineyard, Smoot Renfro, Bob Cox and Sam Lewis.

Mrs. Payne died Sunday morning at the home of another son, James G. Payne, at Mount Vernon, Texas, following an extensive illness. The body was brought to Comanche Monday morning.

Mrs. Payne, who was Mary C.
Crump before her marriage July 2, 1882 at Harmony, Hopkins County, Texas, to the late W. B.
Payne was born February 17, 1859 in Alabama. She came to Texas many years ago. Mr. and Mrs. Payne moved from Mount Vernon to Comanche in 1908 and made their home here until his death in 1926. Since that time she has made her home here and in Mount Vernon.

Two sons were born to the union. They are S. S. Payne, of Comanche, and James J. Payne, of Mount Vernon. Seven grandchildren also survive her.

In Comanche for the funeral were James G. Payne and son Kyle Payne, Mr. Elliott and Mr.
Dyar, all of Mount Vernon.

Tom F. Reese
Issues Statement to the Citizens
To the Citizens of the 52nd Judicial District:
Last year the citizens of this District elected me to the office of District Attorney, and to show my appreciation for that honor
I gave the best service that I could. A few weeks ago when I was offered an appointment in the United States Treasury Department, I took into consideration not only the duty which I owe to my family and myself, but also my obligation to the citizenship of our District. I believed that if I accepted this appointment I would still be serving the citizenship but in a broader and more useful field.
Therefore, I have resigned the office of District Attorney to accept the greater opportunity and responsibility.

In whatever work I may be called on to do, I have no higher ambition than to turn in a record which may show in a substantial way my honest appreciation for the good will and support which the people of my home district have so generously given to me, and without which such progress as I might lay claim to would never have been possible.

Sincerely yours,
TOM F. REESE.

Quality

We are making a specialty of handling the highest grade of meats possible. We just purchased six rolling fat 10-month old milk calves. Our meats are all REALLY TENDER and DELICIOUS.

YET YOU PAY US NO MORE THAN YOU WOULD PAY FOR ORDINARY MEATS.

Our Grocery Stock Is Complete.

GIVE THE COMPLETE FOOD STORE
A TRIAL ORDER.

PHONE 356

GORE'S
Grocery - Market

Mrs. R. F. Hooker and chilren, Bill, Pat, Ray and Nancy Anne of Shreveport visited Miss Alice Hayes this week. Mr. Hooker, former agent for the Cotton Belt Railway at Comanche, is now general agent at the Shreveport Union Depot.

VINEYARDS

We are still selling Yukon's Flour at $2.00 per sack. No better flour at any price. We handle all kinds lunch meats, fresh butter, fresh eggs, sliced bacon, etc.
Trade with us and save.—Vineyards Grocery.

BY USING—

T-P GASOLINE

AND AERO MOTOR OILS

You will be assured of satisfactory automobile performance.

For greater driving safety use

G & J TIRES

Wholesale and Retail Sales and Service

Phone 105

Joe Tupin, Agent

JOE'S SERVICE STATION

HOW'S THIS FOR MILEAGE!

Don't take chances on that Labor Day trip — put on new Goodyear "G-3" All-Weathers. We can show you footprint records of "G-3's" driven right here in town that prove this famous tire will give you

43% LONGER NON-SKID MILEAGE
—at no extra cost
Don't buy tires until you see how MUCH MORE VALUE — how MUCH MORE SAFETY — the world's largest tire manufacturer offers you at prices as low as any.

COME IN AND SEE

this footprint evidence

These tread imprints are typical of scores we've taken from "G-3's" on local cars—after delivering record mileages.
Note the sharp non-skid still remaining—proof that there is still thousands of miles of safety left in these treads.

HOW'S THIS FOR ECONOMY!

PATHFINDER
4.90
Has all Goodyear's famous quality features — at a price within reach of all.
4.40-21 4.75-19 5.45 6.05 6.50

SPEEDWAY
4.10
A value made possible only by millions of sales. Goodyear-built and guaranteed.
4.40-21 4.75-19 4.80 5.00 5.25

DON'T BE FOOLED
by trick discounts from padded price lists. You can buy a genuine Goodyear — the world's most popular tire — for just as little money.

These Prices Settle
The Argument—
WHY BUY ANYTHING
Other Than Genuine
GOODYEARS!

Follow the crowds!

To

The Princess Shop

—for—

THIS WEEK'S 10 SPECIALS

Thick Malted Milks 10c
Colonial Pints of Pure Ice Cream .. 10c

We sell no "cheap" products—the best is none too good for our customers at a low price.

POSITION WANTED—Expert
lady bookkeeper wants position.
Experienced in all lines bookkeeping and clerical work. Four years experience in bank and
store.—Write Bookkeeper, care
of The Chief, Comanche, Texas.

FOR RENT—Store Building soon
to be vacated by Durham Pecan
Co.—K. L. Macon.

WANTED—A few hundred lbs.
cotton tagging certificates. The price must be right.—K. L. Macon.

PIANO WANTED—Will pay cash
for a good used instrument of
the right kind. See Mrs. Robert
Eaton or Mrs. Tom F. Reese.

POSTED AND TRESPASSING
NOTICE—I will prosecute to the fullest extent of the law any party trespassing on my land.—
Verna Mayers.

FOR SALE—3 truck loads of good Peaches. Will have them at Edwards Wagon Yard
between 10 and 11 o'clock.—Evan
and Mackay.

OUR REPUTATION is your Guarantee of BETTER SERVICE AT LOWER COST

We never forget that our reputation in the community was built, and depends, on fair and square dealing and friendly service. Except for yourself, we are more interested in the satisfaction, lowest operation of your Chevrolet than anyone. That is why the entire efficiency of our modern service department is organized around the single aim to give you the best service at the lowest cost.

The place for Friendly Service

Fagan Chevrolet Co.
PHONE 47

Opening Saturday

We are opening for business Saturday and will have a full line of variety goods, notions, etc.

More Merchandise Arriving Daily.

Located in the store formerly occupied by Gore's Grocery.

LIGHT'S STORE

Becks

Service Station

HAROLD BECK, Operator
Last Station Out of Town on Brownwood St.
T-P PRODUCTS
G & J TIRES
Accessories—Flats Fixed Reach Us by Side Street
While Road Is Closed
For Highway Work

MORE ABOUT OLD-TIME COMANCHE (Continued From First Page)

order on the corner or near it, where the Ford Garage is now.

Crossing the street from Reddin and Turner going south, on the corner was Elliott & Wright's store, general merchandise, and next to them was A. L. (Dock) Hamilton's drug and grocery store. Next to them was the first stone building encountered, in the lower floor of which W. H. Wilson had a mercantile business. He was nicknamed "Windy" Wilson. Then was another old wooden shack, in which Smith and Stone had a saddle and harness shop. As I now remember, there was a vacancy in south of that shop, and next came the hardware store of William Barnes all these buildings being fire traps except the Wilson store. Next after Barnes was the 100 feet covered, first with a one-story building of brick, occupied by D. M. Clower & Son, watches, clocks, jewelry, etc. Next to them was another one-story brick in which was the banking house of H. R. Martin & Co. Then the final southern 75 feet of that block was covered with two-story bricks, the first occupied by Capt. Jack Wright for a saloon; the next was an omnibus 50-foot brick, the lower story of which was occupied by Stephens & Armstrong with a stock of goods, and the side on the corner by Dickson & Green. In the upper story of this 50-foot front, over Stephens & Armstrong, were a law office at the front occupied by Hutchison & Shropshire, lawyers, and the rear half by the Comanche Chief, owned by Fields and Hill. I think the other part, over Dickson & Green was not occupied.

Crossing the street going south from Dickson & Green, to the corner now occupied by the beautiful new brick one-story just finished by Higginbothams, was a wooden shack in which J. M. McCrary had a combination hardware and tin shop. That was about all. The city calaboose or hoosegow was on the southwest corner of this block and I believe is still there, though I have not noticed that corner for years.

Crossing the street going east, to the corner on which the Comanche Bank now stands, was a wooden shack owned and occupied by J. S. Vedde for a store. Next, without being quite so certain, I think was Fleming and Cummings meat market. There was nothing else on that side of the square that I recall, unless R. A. McCain was there then; but I am uncertain about this, as to whether he was then in business or came later. George Talbot built a livery stable on the lot where the Tate building stands (Wagner's grocery and Wilhelm's barber shop now), after I settled in Comanche. This completes all the south front on the square.

Again, crossing the street going east to the filling station on the corner, was Vernon & Green's cotton gin. An old dwelling was used for storage purposes, but the gin itself was under a tent, and as this was before the web condensation had been invented, the back end of the tent was closely shut up, to keep the flying flakes of ginned cotton from taking to the winds and landing in Stephenville. Just south of them was a Mrs. Canan, but I have forgotten what her business was. I fail to recall any other houses on that block.

Turning to the north and crossing the street to where Tate's store house is now, was a combination brick structure of nearly thirty feet front and another of the rest of fifty feet front. The first was occupied by Campbell & Mizell. They were brothers-in-law—the Campbell being unrelated to any other known family of Campbells. They were from Alabama, as I now remember. Mizell had been a school teacher, and was rather intellectually disposed, than commercially. Campbell, however, was a good business man. The other portion of the lower story was occupied by D. L. Gooch as a drug and grocery store—both wholesale and retail. Above these buildings was an unfinished upper story, but divided into sleeping chambers, and was occupied by a number of bachelors for bed-rooms. John Carter, Byron Green, the late Judge Lindsey, and a number of others slept up there, and from hearsay they were not always asleep. At any rate, they had lots of fun there. North and adjoining this first fifty feet was an unfinished wall of brick front and rubble side, part of which was ten or fifteen feet high, and part not over breast-high. The front was open, only the foundation walls being laid. It was said this beginning was made by the Lupton brothers, builders, who failed when they got that far and had to quit. There was no building fronting the square north of these except a small two-story rubble-stone building erected by John D. Stephens for a law office, and perhaps a sleeping room above. This was on a part of the lot now occupied by the one-story now housing the shoeshop of Kilpatrick and the barber shop and perhaps a beauty parlor.

No further buildings were met until you crossed the street going north, where the Odd Fellows Hall now is. There was a two-story wooden building put up by Stone & James, but at the time I came it was vacant. January 1, Jeff Greene and myself, who had gone into a drug and grocery business—the same that Gooch had before he left—moved from the Gooch storehouse into the Stone & James building. We were doing business in this house when Ross Greene, Jeff's brother was killed. There was nothing north of this building that I remember except a shack of a dwelling that Friday Morris and family lived in.

Going west and crossing the street from this corner to where the old First National Bank building stands, the first 25 feet was vacant. It was on this vacant lot, I understand, that Charles Webb was killed by the John Wesley Hardin band. This occurred two years before I came to Comanche. Then next to this vacancy was the saloon of the Holcomb Brothers. I think next to them was a double front of wooden buildings but I do not know who then occupied them. They had been occupied by Dr. Simmons, and some years later by Major Bratton for a livery stable. Then came a wooden building known as the "Glass Front," which was then occupied by John Deane in a mercantile venture. My recollection is not very clear about the remaining buildings, except that they were all wooden, and were all cleaned out by a fire, as all the other shacks were, at different times. Tom Johnson had a grocery store probably on the property owned by Mrs. Dora Greene; and a man named Wheeler also held forth in some kind of mercantile business. It seems to me rather dimly, that Mitch Overstreet was in some kind of trade, on the north side, but this is very uncertain.

This about covers the space fronting the square. On the square, both sides of the old courthouse, were wells, many persons can now remember them as they were not filled up until after the city waterworks were established about thirty years ago. Over the north wall, Jeff Greene had erected an Eclipse windmill. They had just come into vogue for pumping water, and this one was erected as an advertisement of his agency. In the tower over the well a little room was closed in, and a barber named Hall rented the room for a shop.

North of where the First National Bank building now stands, was a livery stable. I think it was run for a while by J. W. Welch, but later by Bill Stephens, father of Jack and Will, but at that time he was unmarried. He was a brother of John D. Stephens, who, in his day was the most prominent citizen of the county, being state senator from this district. He, and R. G. Armstrong, did a land agency business. If John D. had not gone into the mercantile business, he might have accumulated a fortune right here in Comanche; but that venture was his undoing. He finally left here, went to Old Mexico, and before his death had accumulated another small fortune. He never married, so far as I know. As a lawyer he was quite successful.

At that time Charles E. Williamson was county judge, J. D. Beamer was county clerk, M. W. Carroll, district clerk; Frank Wilson was sheriff, N. R. Lindsey, county attorney. I forget who was tax assessor.

The county had just completed far enough for court to be held and the offices housed, a new brick courthouse. A year or two previous Martin & Byrne, or Martin, Byrne & Johnston, had burnt a large kiln of brick, and the storehouses mentioned on the west side of the square and those on the east side were built from that kiln of brick, as was also the new courthouse. This house was torn down in 1890-91, to make way for the present structure. Besides these buildings, Uncle Jack Nabers had a dwelling built of the same lot of brick; I think George Vernon had a home built of it back of the present Eugene Neely building, later owned by Col. E. J. Whitt. Col. Lowry, a leading lawyer, also had a dwelling built of the same material, fail to recall others.

I recall but two physicians then practicing here—Dr. Robertson and Tucker. There were the following named lawyers: Judge T. H. and L. P. Hutchison; E. L. Shropshire, N. R. Lindsey, G. R. Hart, Col. W. S. J. Adams, Sam P. Ford, John D. Stephens, J. R. Fleming had been practicing but at the time of my arrival he was judge of the district court. A little later Arthur J. Pilgram came here and opened an office.

JEWELRY BARGAINS

I am leaving town soon, and am offering some real bargains in jewelry, etc. Anyone who has repair work in my shop will please call for same at once—J. B. Hamilton, Jeweler. (1)

601st Degree

Denton, Texas—Miss Ann Zachary received the 601st degree granted during the 1934-35 school session by North Texas State Teachers College, Denton. This is the second largest number of degrees granted by an institution of higher learning in Texas, and is believed to be the largest class graduated by a State Teachers College in the United States. Four hundred forty-two degrees were awarded at the close of the summer session, at which time Governor James V. Allred delivered the commencement address.

Ernest Seay and family of Albuquerque, New Mexico spent the week end with Ed Seay at Pettit, and other relatives. Mr. Seay was enroute to the National Letter Carriers Convention at Columbus, Ohio.

NOTICE

There will be a meeting of the Townsend Clubs of Comanche County, Monday, Sept. 2. Everyone is urged to come as there is important business to come before the meeting.—B. F. Cadenhead.

W. C. HOUSE ATTENDS MEETING AT LUBBOCK

W. C. House, local agent for The Sinclair Refining Company, attended a state-wide sales meeting held in Lubbock last Saturday.

Mr. House stated that all the state officials from Fort Worth were in attendance at this meeting. Many very interesting and instructive talks were heard he stated.

Miss Bess Hoff spent last week end in Fort Worth and Dallas with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Finis Cloack and Carl Jack Carter of Nocona are visiting relatives here.

WILLIAMS PRICES

Fresh Meal, 48 and 53 cents per sack; Quart fruit Jars, 75c dozen, any kind; 100 per cent pure Coffee, 3 pounds, 50c; Cooking Oil, $1.15 gallon; 1 Lb. Can Mackerel 9c; See me for cotton sacking; Full cut blue shirts 65c; $1.00 boys black straw hats for 25c; Boy's Underwear 20c per suit. Wear-U-Well Shoes for the whole family at money saving prices.—C. F. Williams.

For That Fall Suit SEE THE Chief Dry Cleaners

Representing Some of America's Best Tailoring Companies. We are showing the smartest assortments of fall and winter woolen in years. Interesting color combinations; many patterns to select from.

Chief Dry Cleaners
E. E. McNATT, Proprietor

Due to the unusual demand we have met for the NEW JESSE LEE PERMANENTS

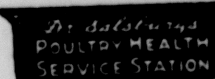

We are extending our special offer over September 2nd, First Monday
JESSE LEE OIL PERMANENT 2.00
JESSE LEE PLAIN PERMANENT 1.50
These Permanents Guaranteed. OTHER PERMANENTS 1.50 TO 7.50

Phone 108 for Appointment

JOHNNY'S BEAUTY SALON

16 Page Book Free "Worms in Poultry"

Tells in word and picture what worms do to your poultry and how to avoid and control them. Stop in and get your FREE copy.

Comanche Milling
Company

2 Blocks South and 2 Blocks East of the Square

Make Your Headquarters at

Edwards'

SATURDAY and FIRST MONDAY

For Years Edwards' has been the Trading Place for the Farmers of Comanche County.

Bring Us Your Produce

EDWARDS FEED & PRODUCE CO.

Look At These Low Federal Tire Prices

A Guarantee That Assures You of Your Moneys Worth

Every Federal Tire is covered by the Federal Bond which protects you against all Road Hazards and in addition to the Bond every tire is guaranteed against defective workmanship and material for the life of the tire regardless of how long it has been in use.

Federal Biltmore 4-Ply	Federal Traffik 4-Ply	Federal Double Blue Pennant 4-Ply
440x21 $4.25	440x21 $4.45	450x20 $6.40
450x20 4.50	450x20 5.45	450x21 6.65
450x21 4.70	450x21 5.70	475x19 7.05
475x19 4.95	475x19 6.00	500x19 7.55
475x20 5.10	475x20 6.15	500x20 7.85
500x19 5.30	500x19 6.45	525x17 8.15
500x20 5.50	500x20 6.67	525x18 8.40
525x18 5.90	525x17 6.95	525x21 9.25
525x21 6.50	525x18 7.15	550x17 9.20
550x17 6.45	525x21 7.90	550x19 9.65
550x19 6.80	550x17 7.90	600x16 10.30
	550x18 8.10
	550x19 8.25

TRUCK TIRES GUARANTEED 6 MONTHS AGAINST ALL ROAD HAZARDS

FEDERAL STANDARD BONDED

30x5, 8 Ply	$16.50
32x6, 8 Ply	$21.85
32x6, 10 Ply	$28.00

COMMERCIAL DOUBLE BLUE PENNANT

30x5, 8 Ply	$18.35
32x6, 8 Ply	$23.80
32x6, 10 Ply	$31.20

30x3 1-2 Giant Over Size	3.85	440x21 FEDERAL TRAFFIK Guaranteed 12 Months	4 ⁴⁵	6.00x16 Airide Traffik	8.75
--------------------------------	------	---	-----------------	------------------------------	------

Dudley Bros.

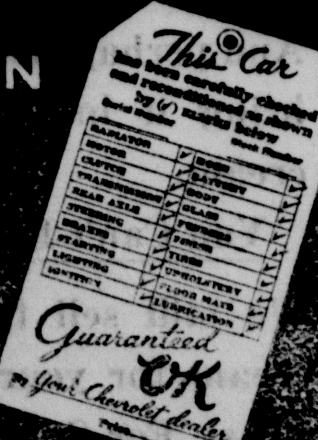

GAIL
TELEPHONE 153

TOM

ELTOS

COMANCHE, TEXAS

GET THE PROTECTION OF THE Guaranteed
OK TAG
on our USED CARS

CHEVROLET When you see the Guaranteed OK Tag on a car, you can be absolutely sure of getting a sound, thoroughly conditioned used car—the best value obtainable. You can read the reconditioning work done, on the face of the tag—and the business reputation of your Chevrolet dealer stands squarely back of every car.

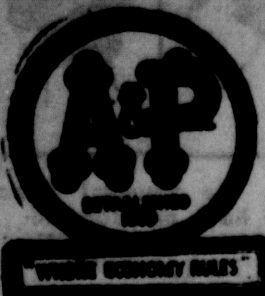

OUT THEY GO—

LOW PRICES!

1934 Chevrolet Pickup	$450.00
1934 Chevrolet Coach	495.00
1932 Chevrolet Sedan	325.00
1931 Chevrolet Coach	295.00
1930 Ford Tudor	245.00
1930 Ford Coupe	165.00
1929 Chevrolet Sedan	195.00
1934 Chevrolet Truck	395.00
1931 Chevrolet Truck	145.00
1927 Chevrolet Coupe	40.00
1926 Ford Touring, good	30.00
1925 Chevrolet School Bus	185.00
1931 Chevrolet Coupe	195.00

Fagan Chevrolet Co.

PHONE 47

SALMON

TALL CAN 10c

BANANAS, lb.	4c
SEEDLESS GRAPES, 2 lbs.	13c
ORANGES, dozen	21c
POTATOES, 10 lbs.	19c
8 O'CLOCK COFFEE, lb.	17c
Sultana
Peanut Butter, 16 oz. jar 20c.—32 oz. 35c
MAXWELL HOUSE
COFFEE, lb. can	28c
Grandmother's Popular
PIMENTO BREAD, loaf	10c
Grandmother's White or Wheat
BREAD, loaf	7c
Fresh Baked
Fig Bars, lb. 10c.—Vanilla Wafers lb. 12c
GAPENUT FLAKES, Pkg.	10c
JELLO, 3 pkgs.	19c
All Flavors
Waldorf
Paper, 3 rolls 13c.—Scott Tissue, 3 rls. 20c
A & P CLEANSER, can	4c
Sunnyfield
CORN FLAKES, lge. box	9c
Iona PORK & BEANS, can	5c
OUR OWN TEA, 1-2 lb. pkg.	22c
PICNIC HAMS, lb.	25c
Iona Salad Dressing, qt. jar	27c
A-PENN MOTOR OIL, 2 gal. can	1.19

NOTICE!

SHERIFF'S SALE

The State of Texas, County of Comanche.

By virtue of an order of Sale, issued out of the Honorable District Court of Comanche County on the 16th day of July A. D. 1935 by the Clerk thereof, in the case of Z. L. Koonce versus Mrs. Clara Boswell, as Administratrix of the estate of J. T. Boswell, deceased and personally Elton Boswell, Vivian Boswell, J. T. Boswell, Evelyn Boswell, Jon E. Boswell, Royland Boswell, Arnold B. Boswell, and Barbara Boswell, No. 7962 and to me, as Sheriff, directed and delivered, I will proceed to sell for cash, within the hours prescribed by law for Sheriff's Sales, on the First Tuesday in September A. D. 1935, it being the 3rd day of said month, before the Court house door of said Comanche County, in the City of Comanche, the following described property, to-wit:

All that certain tract or parcel of land lying and being situated in Comanche County, Texas and the same being out of and part of the S. 1-2 of sec. No. 13, H. & T. C. Ry Co. Sur. Comanche County, Texas and described by metes and bounds as follows: Beginning at the S. W. corner of said sec. No. 13, for the S. W. Cor. this tract; thence S 71 E with the S line of said sec. 950 vrs. to a point for the S. E. cor. of this tract and being the S. E. cor. of the S. W. 1-4 of said sec. Thence N 19 E 596.5 vrs. to S. E. cor. of P. L. Morris tract for N. E. cor. of this tract; Thence N. 71 W. 950 vrs. with S. line of said Morris tract to a point in W line of said Sec. for the N. W. cor. this tract; Thence S 19 W 596.5 vrs. with the west line of said sec. to the place of beginning and containing 96.93 acres of land; Also all that certain tract or parcel of land out of the S. W. 1-4 of the S. E. 1-4 of said sec. No. 13, described as follows: BEGINNING at the N. W. cor. of a three acre tract this day conveyed by G. M. Strickland and wife to B. Williamson for the N. E. Cor. of this tract; thence N. 71 W with the N line of the said S. W. 1-4 of the S. E. 1-4 of said sec. 317.3 vrs. to a point in the E line of the S. W. 1-4 of said sec. for the N. W. Cor. of this tract; Thence S 19 W with the E line of said S. W. 1-4 of said sec. 112.5 vrs. to a point for the S. E. cor. this tract; thence N 19 E with the W line of said B. Williamson tract 112.5 vrs to the place of beginning and containing 6.3 acres of land; levied upon as the property of the above named defendants to satisfy judgment amounting to $1400.36 in favor of Z. L. Koonce and cost of suit and the further costs of executing this sale.

Given under my hand this 5th day of August A. D. 1935.
J. H. REESE, Sheriff.
(2-3-4-5)

Inspiring Opportunities

ABILENE, Texas, Aug. 13, 1935. Many young peoples are now finding inspiring opportunities in banks, wholesale houses, with various government recovery agencies, and other big employers as a result of a few pleasant months spent in Draughton's Business College of this city, according to the Employment Report just released. In one PWA office alone a number of graduates have accepted excellent positions, with attractive beginning salaries, during the past few days; and hundreds of other office workers will be needed by this and other government agencies as projects develop.

With business and crop conditions the most inspiring in many years, young people with the foresight to prepare will find the opportunities of a lifetime awaiting them through the far-reaching Draughton placement facilities.

Those who are interested in business careers are invited to write for Catalog C showing training and time required, low cost, methods of placing graduates, a long list of recent placements, and starting date of classes. A post-card will do.

Cotton Grove

Mrs. J. A. Goforth of Desdemona spent part of last week with Mr. and Mrs. John McEntire.
Miss Iuen Guy of Soda Springs is visiting Miss Myrl Glasgow this week.
Mr. and Mrs. Jake Graham spent last Thursday and Friday at Desdemona.
Miss Grace Hilliard was a Brownwood visitor Monday.
Mrs. Lamar Howell honored Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Holmstead Tuesday night with a wedding shower.

Proctor

Mrs. J. N. Vandiver and daughter, Blanche, have gone to Harold where they have positions.
Mrs. Hughlin Hughes visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Carter at Nocona Monday.
J. M. Smallwood visited his mother, Mrs. Lillian Smallwood at Beaumont last week.

Dave Sears spent the week end with relatives at De Leon.

Bert Carleton spent Thursday at Stephenville.

Miss Modell Alexander visited relatives at Waco last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy McClain of Cleburne visited Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hughes Sunday.

Mrs. J. M. Smallwood and children spent last week with relatives at Stephenville and Fort Worth.

R. L. Fortune was a Stephenville last week.

Jess Hanson, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Hanson at San Antonio and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Luker at Yoakum, was accompanied home by Miss Ida May Moore who had been visiting her sister, Mrs. J. G. Luker at Yoakum.

Mrs. Oma Loving of Borger visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Newman last week.

Miss Madeline Davis visited relatives in Fort Worth last week.

Mrs. D. B. Nichols and daughters, Misses Ora B. and Maxine of Comanche accompanied Miss Ruth Howell of this place to Eldorado last week. Miss Howell went on to Sanderson to begin teaching Monday.

Mrs. R. E. Anders is visiting in San Angelo.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Carleton and son, Eugene, of Wise County visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Johnson and son of Lorraine and Mrs. N. O. Graham of Sweetwater visited Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Johnson Sunday.

Mrs. George Hover and son of Lorraine visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Tolar of Dublin, who has been visiting relatives at Abilene, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. May Kellum here.

Miss Dora Smith who has been attending summer school at John Terkenton has returned home.

Mr. and Mrs. Crumpler and daughter of Pittsburg, enroute to Dallas, visited Mrs. J. N. Vandiver last week.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Abernathy, and Mrs. Ellington of Gustine visited Mr. and Mrs. Alton Abernathy last week.

Mrs. T. C. Lane of this place accompanied Mr. and Mrs. Walter Dixon and children of Gorman, to Wichita Falls and Hammond, Okla., last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Steel of Dallas spent the week end with Mrs. J. T. Washington. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Steel's mother, Mrs. Bell Norton.

Mr. and Mrs. Burret Stone of Stephenville visited Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Stone Sunday.

Mrs. Annie Pinson accompanied her son, Marcus, to a Gorman hospital Saturday, where he had his tonsils removed.

Rev. Hornburg filled his appointment at the Baptist Church Sunday.

Harmony

Mrs. Earl Henson is recovering from an appendicitis operation at a Gorman hospital.

Misses Givith Harris of Newburg and Estelle Swindle of Fellowship spent last week here with friends.

Miss Leona Thomas of Beardville spent last week here with Mrs. C. C. Thomas.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Rogers, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. George Gohar of Tabor's Chapel, Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Rogers, Lavon Rogers and Curtis McKinzie of Mercer Gap, visited their uncle, Mr. Storey, in Lee County last week.

Sherman Bean and Marion Wetzel visited at Pompey Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Rogers and son, Enell, accompanied Mrs. Clarence Albin to Gorman last Thursday.

Attendance at the revival here was good throughout the week. Three members were received into the church Sunday morning. Members and friends gave the pastor and Mrs. Kramer a 'pounding' Friday night.

Mrs. Jim Edwards of Cotton Grove spent Friday with her sister, Mrs. Joe Rogers.

Mrs. Mervle Wilhelm of Dallas spent the week end with her brother-in-law, J. F. Wilhelm and family.

J. D. and Dick Hicks of Newburg spent Saturday night here.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Rogers of Mercer Gap spent Sunday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rogers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Gohar of Tabor's Chapel spent Sunday with their son, Fischel Gohar and family.

Livsey Thomas and family of Beard Hill, Calvin Thomas and family of Holcomb and Miss Wilma Hemphill of Comanche spent Sunday with C. C. Thomas and family.

Mrs. Clarence Albin of Holcomb, Mrs. Delmar McDaniel of Comanche, Mrs. Paul Albin of Lampasas, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Edwards and Justus Edwards of Cotton Grove spent Sunday with J. F. Wilhelm and family.

Ed Green and family left Monday to spend several weeks in McLennan County.

Board Church

Singing will be held here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Kermit Bustle of Lipan spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hall and family.

Mrs. Bertha Manning and daughter of Oklahoma are visiting her parents, H. D. Lane and family.

Bud Smart and family visited relatives near Gustine Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. McCamey and family spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Moore and family at Baggett.

Miss Inez Hall spent Sunday night with Miss Lucy Evans at Baggett.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Burlette and children of Indian Creek visited Mr. and Mrs. Elbie Burdette and family Sunday.

Mrs. Talmadge Smallwood and daughter, Misses Mamie and Frankie, of Turkey are visiting relatives here.

Mrs. Albert Clements and Nardine of Colorado spent part of this week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Flur Northcutt and family.

Mrs. R. J. Stuteville and son spent last week with Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Stuteville at Gustine.

Mr. and Mrs. Merlin Stanton and family attended the Williams reunion Sunday at Lake Eanes.

Mercer Gap

Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Harris and son of Palestine visited her sister, Mrs. T. N. Williams and family Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Rogers and son, Lavon, and Curtis McKinzie spent part of last week with their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. M. Storey at Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Otho Gohar and daughter of Harmony spent Saturday night with his uncle, T. O. Rogers and family.

A. H. Stevens visited relatives at Coleman last week.

Mr. and Mrs. T. N. Williams and family, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Huggins and family attended the Baptist Association meet at Sidney Wednesday.

Mrs. Vada Stevens and children of Brownwood are visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. M. F. Williford this week.

Brooks-Macedonia

Several from this community attended the Methodist revival at Sipe Springs Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Harris and son visited in Brownwood Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Roach of Trent are visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Stanfield spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edwards of Okra.

Mrs. West Vernon of near Brownwood spent part of last week with Bill Vernon and family.

Meats

Summer or winter, meat is always the main course in any meal. - Summer meats and sausage in a tempting display may always be found at this shop. We guarantee our meats - - all selected grades. - You'll save by shopping here.

JUST PHONE 345

City Meat Market

For auto body repair work

Go to an auto body shop that is equipped to do good work

Bukoviny Auto Top And Body Shop

The only Completely Equipped Top and Body Shop in Comanche.

Van Dyke

Calvin Duncan and family of Banning, California is visiting his uncle, Bob McNutt.

Mrs. Wilburn Hulsey and daughter of Downing are visiting relatives here.

Fred Thompson and Hollis Rainey of Shamrock are visiting W. M. Grigsby and family.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Lesley of Downing visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arch Patton Sunday.

Truman Bratton of John Tarleton College spent the week end with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bratton.

Ray Reid has returned home from Colorado City.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Strong returned home Tuesday from a visit at San Antonio and Corpus Christi.

BRIDE HONORED AT MACKSVILLE MONDAY WITH A SHOWER

Mrs. J. D. Center, the former Louise Strickland, was honored with a bridal shower at the home of Mrs. Van Galloway at Macksville Monday afternoon.

The guests were entertained with a biography of the honoree's life, given by Grace Holland, and a prophesy of her future by Cordy Galloway. Advice was freely given then by the following guests, Mrs. Edward Hillhouse.

Mrs. Jake Sigmon, Mrs. Pete Ellington, Misses Dora and Valle Thompson and Eula Hillhouse, Mrs. Les Wilson, Mrs. Tom Holland, Mrs. Wale Porter, Mrs. Cap Glenton, Mrs. Weyland McDonald, Mrs. M. E. Barnett, Miss Marie Barnett, Mrs. Luther Thompson, Mrs. Mary Neel and Mrs. J. P. McAbee of Lamkin; Mrs. F. G. Strickland and Virginia McMana of Waco.

Refreshments of cake and pop were served.

Miss Martha Gain of Dublin spent the week end here with Miss Jaunita Barrett.

J. B. Dupuy of Gorman was a Comanche visitor Sunday.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Be Sure They Properly Cleanse the Blood

YOUR kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as nature intended—fail to remove impurities that tend to poison the system when retained. Then you may suffer nagging backache, dizziness, scanty or too frequent urination, feeling upset at night, swollen limbs, getting nervous, miserable—all upset. Don't delay! Use Doan's Pills. Doan's are especially for poorly functioning kidneys. They are recommended by grateful users the country over. Get them from any druggist.

DOAN'S PILLS

Macksville

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Harris and children, Francis Adams and Aetelle Barnett of Hamilton visited M. E. Barnett and family Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Vance Estes and Mr. and Mrs. Gillingham and son of West Texas are visiting E. C. Estes and family.

Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Caraway of Gustine visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Caraway Sunday.

Visitors in the W. H. Porter home last week were Mr. and Mrs. George Clarke of Comanche, Mrs. E. L. Kinney and son, George Ray of Stamford, Eulalia Glover of California, Mrs. Norvell Walker and son, Charles Wade of Soda Springs.

Bennie Joe Harris is making his home with his aunt, Mrs. M. E. Barnett and will attend Gustine High School.

Creamer

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Creamer are visiting in San Saba this week.

Miss Billy Vick has returned to Tyler after an extended visit here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Vick.

Mr. and Mrs. Stewart of Roscoe visited relatives here last week.

Mrs. Tom Northcutt and daughters of Desdemona visited Mrs. Rob Stewart Wednesday.

Mrs. Fannie Carnes of Abilene visited relatives here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Dunlap of Big Springs visited her parents, Mr. and Mrs. McAlley last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lem Davis of Munday visited relatives here last week.

*BALD? Give Your Scalp a Chance

Japanese Oil is the name of the remarkably successful preparation that thousands are using to get rid of loose dandruff, stop scalp itch and grow strong, healthy hair on thin and partially bald spots where hair roots are not dead. This famous antiseptic counter-irritant stimulates circulation in the scalp, brings an abundant supply of blood to nourish and feed starved hair roots—one of the chief causes of baldness. Get a bottle today at any druggist. The cost is trifling, too (Economy size, $1). You have little to lose and much to gain. FREE, valuable book "The Truth About the Hair." If you write to National Remedy Co., 56 W. 45th St., N. Y.

JAPANESE OIL

This advertisement was reviewed and approved by a registered physician.

Ernest's Barbecue Stand

FAMOUS BAR-B-Q BEEF

SANDWICH, NOW 10c

LARGE PLATE BAR-B-Q 25c

BAR-B-Q LUNCH WITH VEGETABLES 25c

BARBECUE SOLD IN BULK.

TRY OUR FOODS AND SERVICE

Special Cream Offer

WE WILL PAY 3 CENTS ABOVE MARKET PRICE FOR STRICT NUMBER 1 CREAM

Saturday and Monday

And perhaps longer. We need the cream; bring it in—Usual price for ordinary cream.

You Can't Lose—But You May Gain

We still sell the most of the best ice cream for your money.

Ask For Sunbeam Ice Cream When Ordinary Ice Cream Won't Do.

Sunbeam Creamery

REAL BARGAINS IN REAL ESTATE

Five room dwelling, large lot, desirable location. Price $750.00.
Five room dwelling, garage, barn, small orchard, 14x16 basement under dwelling. Three acres of land. Price $1250.00.
Large frame dwelling, corner lot, close to school—$650.00.—$100.00 cash, balance at 8 per cent interest, easy terms.
80 acre farm, 65 acres in cultivation, 3 room dwelling, barn and out-houses. 1 1-2 acre grapes, 2 acres berries. Price $1300.00; $400.00 cash, balance easy terms.
340 acres, with 70 acres in cultivation, balance good grass. Fenced and cross-fenced with woven wire on cedar posts. Priced to sell at $12.00 per acre.

Why not own your home—or invest in real estate?

SEE US AT ONCE

J. R. Eanes & Co.

John D. Waring

C. A. Greene

KEMP REUNION IS HELD AUGUST 15 AT POTTSVILLE

Descendants of the late W. M. and E. A. Kemp held their 10th reunion on August 15th at Pottsville.

There are eight living children of the family. Two were unable to attend, Mrs. Huldah A. Cox of Wingate and Mrs. Sarah E. Havens of McGirk.

The morning was spent in greetings and conversation, and a feature of the day was the lunch spread at the noon hour.

In the afternoon a business session was held and the following officers chosen: Jay Glover, president; F. M. Kemp, vice-president; Mrs. Lyde Hurley, secretary; G. W. Hurley, treasurer; and Mary Griffith, reporter.

The remainder of the day was spent in singing and conversation.

Those enjoying the reunion were the following relatives and friends: Mrs. M. M. Glover of Pottsville, S. C. Kemp and wife, Indian Gap, Route 2; Mrs. M. E. Jones, Indian Gap, Route 2; Mrs. W. M. Griffith, Pottsville; G. F. Kemp, Energy; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Kemp, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cox, Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Kemp, Caradon; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Walker, Caradon; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Brown, Indian Gap; G. W. Glover and family, Ruby Olney and Lillian, Hamilton, Route 3; Mr. and Mrs. Jav Glover and children, Cleo Addis and Cecil, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Bullard and children, Jack Lynn and Mary Beth, Indian Gap, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. Other Kemp and children, Louise and Earl, Energy; J. W. Kemp and son, J. W. Jr., Energy; Mr. and Mrs. Charley Cole and children, Mary Lou, Jimmie Dean, Charles, Jr., and Billy Jean, Hamilton, Route 2; Mr. and Mrs. John Griffith and daughter, Nancy Jane, Indian Gap; Mr. and Mrs. Lonnie Kemp, Milford.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McGlothlin and children, Jaunita and James, Energy; Mr. and Mrs. Ray Jones and children, Paul, Billie Ray and Bobbie, Indian Gap; Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Smith and children, Earline, Mary Sue, and James E., Hamilton; John N. Wright and wife, Hamilton, Route 3; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffith and children, Billy Gerald and Joy Ann Hico, Route 5; Misses Stella and Ula Kemp, Energy; Mrs. M. B. Thomas and children, M. B., Jr., David and Nelta Mae, Mertens; Mrs. Rosa Edwards, Commerce; G. W. Hurley, wife and son, Burton, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Kemp and sons, Howard B. and Joe Sid, Energy; Mary Griffith, Pottsville; Tom Kemp, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton and daughter, Jo Nell of Hamilton, Route 3; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. La Roque, Sidney; J. M. Kemp and sons, Gustine; Billy Lee Graham, Pottsville; Dan Wilder, Caradon; Marvin Kinsey, wife and daughters, Hallie Ruth and Joy Nell, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurley and children, Georgia and Arlie, Caradon; Carl Cox, wife and children, Charles, Billy and Peggy, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Hurley, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Crockett Tyler, Milford; Percy Varnell, Barry; O. E. Hiller, wife and son, Emerson, McGirk; Mrs. A. D. Bullard, Hamilton, Route 3; Jack Lee, wife and children, Reta Nell and Wayde Lamar, Turnersville; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kemp and children, Desdemona; Miss Corrine Bullard, Hamilton; T. B. Kemp, Hamilton, Route 3; Mrs. Mollie Cagle, Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Moore, Pottsville.

Charley Kemp and family, Hamilton, Route 3; N. C. Hayes and family, Mrs. Ernest Moore and daughters, Pottsville; Mrs. G. E. Woolsey, Mrs. Jessie Lee, Cecil Burns and wife, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Hayes, Grandma Hurley, Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Fuller of Pottsville; Betty Jean Horner, Brownwood; Melvina Smith and family, Jonesboro; Mrs. Robert Briley, Miss Grace Briley, Mrs. Kate Simmons, Misses Dora and Zora Simmons, Pottsville; Henry Huller, Brownwood; Merdin Boydston and wife, Energy; H. C. Beckner, wife and children, Ruby, Bettie and Alice, Indian Gap, Route 2; Mrs. Roberta Clabough and daughters, Laphane and Lur-

AT AT McKENZIE HOTEL

When you do not go home for dinner, go to the McKenzie Hotel, on block off the Southeast corner of the square. You can get all you can eat for 25 cents. A variety of choice food, served family style. It is not necessary to notify us in advance if you wish to eat at our hotel. We also have nice clean rooms and beds at reasonable rates.

—McKENZIE HOTEL (M)

BILIOUS

Condition Needs Double Action Treatment

Stimulation of liver bile flow is not enough for complete relief, but combined with intestinal stimulation that relieves temporary constipation, quick, soothing results are certain. Herbine, a combination of herbs, combines BOTH actions and so those dizzy, headachy, indigestions, gas, rundown feelings are relieved when both liver and bowels return to normal action. Get your bottle of Herbine from druggists.

SUTTON DUDLEY, DRUGS

DR. VANCE TERRELL

announces the opening of his office at Stephenville Hospital. Practice limited to diseases of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.

666 checks Malaria Colds

Liquid - Tablets first day.
Salve - Nose Tonic & Laxative Drops

Dr. Sterling Price, M. D.

GENERAL PRACTICE
SIDNEY, TEXAS

Dr. E. R. AMMONS DENTIST

Complete X-Ray Service
Phones: Office 456—Res. 348
West Side Square
Comanche, Texas

DAUGHTY CLINIC

CENTRAL TEXAS HOSPITAL
Brownwood, Texas

N. A. Palmer & Co

All Kinds Insurance And Bonds
First Nat'l Bank Bldg.
Residence Phone 25

Dr. A. J. GRAY

Physician and Surgeon
Office on West Side of Square

Dr. Kenneth Ory

PHYSICIAN and SURGEON
Office in Comanche National Bank Annex.
Phone: Office 288—Res. 288

DR. GEO. T. BLACKWELL

Practice Limited to Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat
Blackwell Sanitarium
Gorman, Texas

GULF REFINING CO.

W. H. SLIDER AGENT
OFFICE AT WAREHOUSE
Phones: Office 288—Res. 183

Chiropractic

Remove the Cause of DISEASE

C. L. WYCHE, D. C.

Office in Masonic Building
HOURS: 9 TO 4
Other Hours by Appointment

TIRES

TUBES, BATTERIES
WASHING LUBRICATION
And General Auto Service
—CALL—
Weldon Glasgow
—at—
BIGGS' AUTO PARTS AND SERVICE

lyne, Pottsville; Mrs. C. M. Moore of Phoenix, Ariz.; Grandma Smith, Mrs. Ethel Kinsey, Pottsville; Charley Smith, Hamilton, Route 3; O. O. O. Newton and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kemp, Clyde Smith and family, Mrs. Dan Smith and daughter, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGlothlin, Energy; Mrs. Jim Trimble, Energy; Mrs. Willis Northcutt and children, Pottsville; Mrs. Dick Moore and son, Pottsville; Mrs. G. T. Kemp, Miss Talma Lee Brooks, Wichita Falls; Miss Ella Mae McChristie, Brownwood; Otto Lovelace and wife, Indian Gap; Wm. Coalson and wife and Ottis, W. B. McPherson and family of Pottsville.

Edna Hill

A number of visitors from Hazel Dell attended singing here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brune of Amarillo are visiting their aunt, Miss Mary Gilbert.

Miss Elva Phillips of Enid, Oklahoma visited Miss Inez Salyer last week.

Miss Kathryn Barbee of Dublin is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shillingburg who have been attending school at Denton returned home Saturday.

Miss Oleta Kilgore has been visiting her sister in the Mexico community.

R. L. Montgomery of Enid, Oklahoma has been visiting his sister, Mrs. N. P. Salyer.

Mrs. Edd Kilgore and children, who have been visiting her parents near Lingleville, returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barry of Dublin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Salyer and family.

Hazel Dell

A large number of visitors attended singing here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Lawson and children of Lamkin spent Sunday with Andy Durham and family.

George Ross of near Lamkin spent the week end with Carl Cunningham.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Phillips and Marvin Manning and daughter, Charlene, have been visiting relatives in Leon County.

Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Edinburg attended the Hayes reunion near Lamkin Sunday.

S. C. Lynch, Jake Mass, Harley and Bartow Hughes are fishing on the Colorado River.

Miss Fern Manning visited at Gentry's Mill Sunday.

Miss Lucille Bruton left Sunday for Dallas.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draughts has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draughts for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets.

Mrs. O. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

COMANCHE COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

J. R. Eanes, Manager
Comanche National Bank Bldg.
Telephone 377

Gap; Mr. and Mrs. J. Earl Smith and children, Earline, Mary Sue, and James E., Hamilton; John N. Wright and wife, Hamilton, Route 3; Mr. and Mrs. Tom Griffith and children, Billy Gerald and Joy Ann Hico, Route 5; Misses Stella and Ula Kemp, Energy; Mrs. M. B. Thomas and children, M. B., Jr., David and Nelta Mae, Mertens; Mrs. Rosa Edwards, Commerce; G. W. Hurley, wife and son, Burton, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Kemp and sons, Howard B. and Joe Sid, Energy; Mary Griffith, Pottsville; Tom Kemp, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hamilton and daughter, Jo Nell of Hamilton, Route 3; Mr. and Mrs. H. E. La Roque, Sidney; J. M. Kemp and sons, Gustine; Billy Lee Graham, Pottsville; Dan Wilder, Caradon; Marvin Kinsey, wife and daughters, Hallie Ruth and Joy Nell, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Hurley and children, Georgia and Arlie, Caradon; Carl Cox, wife and children, Charles, Billy and Peggy, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Hurley, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. Crockett Tyler, Milford; Percy Varnell, Barry; O. E. Hiller, wife and son, Emerson, McGirk; Mrs. A. D. Bullard, Hamilton, Route 3; Jack Lee, wife and children, Reta Nell and Wayde Lamar, Turnersville; Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Kemp and children, Desdemona; Miss Corrine Bullard, Hamilton; T. B. Kemp, Hamilton, Route 3; Mrs. Mollie Cagle, Sidney; Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Moore, Pottsville.

Edna Hill

A number of visitors from Hazel Dell attended singing here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brune of Amarillo are visiting their aunt, Miss Mary Gilbert.

Miss Elva Phillips of Enid, Oklahoma visited Miss Inez Salyer last week.

Miss Kathryn Barbee of Dublin is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shillingburg who have been attending school at Denton returned home Saturday.

Miss Oleta Kilgore has been visiting her sister in the Mexico community.

R. L. Montgomery of Enid, Oklahoma has been visiting his sister, Mrs. N. P. Salyer.

Mrs. Edd Kilgore and children, who have been visiting her parents near Lingleville, returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barry of Dublin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Salyer and family.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draughts has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draughts for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets.

Mrs. O. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

COMANCHE COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

J. R. Eanes, Manager
Comanche National Bank Bldg.
Telephone 377

lyne, Pottsville; Mrs. C. M. Moore of Phoenix, Ariz.; Grandma Smith, Mrs. Ethel Kinsey, Pottsville; Charley Smith, Hamilton, Route 3; O. O. O. Newton and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Kemp, Clyde Smith and family, Mrs. Dan Smith and daughter, Pottsville; Mr. and Mrs. W. A. McGlothlin, Energy; Mrs. Jim Trimble, Energy; Mrs. Willis Northcutt and children, Pottsville; Mrs. Dick Moore and son, Pottsville; Mrs. G. T. Kemp, Miss Talma Lee Brooks, Wichita Falls; Miss Ella Mae McChristie, Brownwood; Otto Lovelace and wife, Indian Gap; Wm. Coalson and wife and Ottis, W. B. McPherson and family of Pottsville.

Edna Hill

A number of visitors from Hazel Dell attended singing here Sunday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Brune of Amarillo are visiting their aunt, Miss Mary Gilbert.

Miss Elva Phillips of Enid, Oklahoma visited Miss Inez Salyer last week.

Miss Kathryn Barbee of Dublin is visiting relatives here.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shillingburg who have been attending school at Denton returned home Saturday.

Miss Oleta Kilgore has been visiting her sister in the Mexico community.

R. L. Montgomery of Enid, Oklahoma has been visiting his sister, Mrs. N. P. Salyer.

Mrs. Edd Kilgore and children, who have been visiting her parents near Lingleville, returned home last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Barry of Dublin spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Salyer and family.

Laxative combination folks know is trustworthy

The confidence thousands of parents have in good, old reliable, powdered Theodor's Black-Draughts has prompted them to get the new Syrup of Black-Draughts for their children. The grown folks stick to the powdered Black-Draught; the youngsters probably will prefer it when they outgrow their childish love of sweets.

Mrs. O. W. Adams, of Murray, Ky., writes: "I have used Theodor's Black-Draught (powder) about thirteen years, taking it for biliousness. Black-Draught acts well and I am always pleased with the results. I wanted a good, reliable laxative for my children. I have found Syrup of Black-Draught to be just that."

BLACK-DRAUGHT

COMANCHE COUNTY ABSTRACT CO.

J. R. Eanes, Manager
Comanche National Bank Bldg.
Telephone 377

Durham Bros.

Every Day Prices

8 LBS. COMPOUND	1.00
20 LBS. SUGAR	1.00
(Special Limited)
2 LBS. MOTHER'S COCOA	19c
CRYSTAL WHITE SYRUP, Gal. . .	55c
QUART MUSTARD	10c
2 LBS. CRACKERS	19c
6 BOXES MATCHES	20c
QUART FRUIT JARS	75c
NO. 2 TOMATOES, 3 cans for	25c
SNUFF, All Brands	32c
14 OZ. CATSUP	12c

Durham Bros.

PHONE 254

Why-

PUT OFF BUYING FURNITURE WHEN WE ARE MAKING PRICES SO REASONABLE THAT ALL CAN BUY?

We have a complete line of Furniture and Rugs and will be delighted to have You Come and Inspect Our Stock. When in Brownwood Make Our Store Your Headquarters Price and Quality Always Right

TEXAS FURNITURE & RUG COMPANY

Brownwood, Texas

INSURE

Insurance is Protection. Don't take a chance of Losing your Home or Investment by Neglecting your Insurance.

Nothing but Strong Old Line Stock Companies represented by this Agency.

J. B. ALLCORN
Insurance and Bonds

A NEVER - FAILING MARKET

We are always ready to pay the highest prices the market will possibly afford for your—

Eggs Cream Whole Milk
Chickens Turkeys

Farmers Produce Co.

T. E. Major, Mgr.
Phones 383 and 187

ELKINS TIN SHOP

Will recore your old Radiator—make good as new.—Guaranteed and to cost half price of new job.—Well Buckets, $1.00 each; Well Casing, Flues, Stock Tanks, Cisterns, Gutters. Can do your Fancy Scroll Sawing, any designs such as shelves, what-nots.—Prices Reasonable.—

PHONE 321

Tinkling bells, and the clink of silver

IN A Chinese fairy story one reads about the Emperor's garden, where rare and colorful plants from all over the world were constantly flowering.

It was the duty of the honorable head gardener to watch for the most beautiful of the blooms and tie to the stem of each a little silver bell. As the flowers swayed in the breeze, the bells tinkled with sweet music. Thus the courtiers and the distinguished visitors, strolling along the paths, were sure to see the finest specimens.

This was the Emperor's way of saying "I have something extra fine that you should see: look this way and you'll be repaid."

In the advertising columns of this paper are similar messages addressed to YOU. Read them and you will hear the clink of silver. Our merchants are saying "We have some extra values. We have some especially seasonable articles that you should see. Come to our stores and you will be repaid."

You have nothing to lose when you accept this invitation. In fact, when you fail to do so, you're missing some of the very news for which you bought this paper!

Fountain And Sandwich Service

We have the very finest and newest in Fountain Equipment, and Facilities for Making Sandwiches.

Have You Tried Our Delicious Sandwiches?

PIMENTO CHEESE, Our Own Mixture.

HAM, From Choice Cuts.

CHICKEN SALAD, from Milk Fed Fryers.

Olives, Pickles, Nice Crisp Potato Chips served with all sandwiches.

Our Fountain Service is Unexcelled—Courteous, Fast, Efficient!

Experienced Registered Pharmacists on duty 24 hours every day to fill your prescription strictly according to your physician's orders.

WE APPRECIATE THE OPPORTUNITY OF SERVING YOU—If you have not tried us recently, come in or Phone No. 3.

Sutton Dudley Drugs

MORE ABOUT MRS. HAWORTH

(Continued From First Page)

Funeral services for Mrs. Haworth were held at Oakwood Cemetery Wednesday at 6 p. m. with Rev. M. S. Leveridge officiating.

JEWELRY BARGAINS
I am leaving town soon, and am offering some real bargains in jewelry, etc. Anyone who has repair work in my shop will please call for same at once.—J. B. Hamilton, Jeweler. (12)

CARD OF THANKS

May we take this method of expressing to you in our most humble way, our sincere gratitude to the many friends who extended the tender sympathies to us, in the death of our mother, Mrs. W. B. Payne. We wish to thank you, too, for the beautiful floral offerings.

It is with heartfelt expressions that we thank our friends, and her friends, in Comanche and in Mount Vernon, for your services. S. S. Payne and family of Comanche, and James G. Payne and family, of Mount Vernon.

To Our Friends

IN THE COMANCHE AREA—

We Are Proud to Inform You That

Mrs. W. A. SHELTON

IS NOW WITH US IN THE READY-TO-WEAR DEPARTMENT

Mrs. Shelton welcomes you to visit with her at the store and it will be a genuine pleasure to her if you will permit her to show you the new things for Fall.

R. E. COX

Dry Goods Co.

STEPHENVILLE, TEXAS

Watch This Paper

For The Date of Official Opening And Style Show of Waisman's Department Store

MORE ABOUT SCHOOL GYM

(Continued From First Page)

of the plan and the other two said they would not oppose the issue.

Comanche, even as far back as the eighties was recognized to have one of the best schools in the State and attracted students from all sections of this and adjoining counties. It was one of the first schools to obtain affiliation and enjoyed that distinction when there were less than 50 accredited schools in the State.

A gymnasium for the use of the schools of Comanche County as well as for the city schools would do much to perpetuate this good feeling between the county seat and the rural districts it has been pointed out.

The building will not only be used for athletic contests for a few pupils, but physical exercises and drills for the entire enrollment is the plan. It will be a "health" building, the new superintendent says.

MORE ABOUT LOCALS TO OPEN

(Continued From First Page)

Merchant, center and tackle; Romeo Walker, guard; Todd Switzer, full and quarter; Tom Clyde Marshall and Garland Williams, halves, and James Carter, tackle.

Grady Newsome, letter man who has been practicing with the team, is ineligible on account of grades; Joe Satterfield, who canceled his eligibility by attending Gatesville High the latter half of last term, is another letterman who is coming out.

Among the other boys who are coming out are Charles Marshall who moved to Comanche this summer from Kopperl; Wayne Payne, Jack Magness, William Young, Don Gray, Jim Gray, Joseph Johnson and others. Paul Little, one of the best substitutes on last year's squad is out with a broken arm. Quinton Cauley who starred last year in the backfield on the FFA team and who shows promise as a player, had not reported for practice up to Wednesday.

Coach Frasier, a 4-letter man from A. & I., is reported by the boys as a hard worker and a man who knows football. Considering everything, prospects are at least fair for a good team, according to information available.

MORE ABOUT COUNTY VOTES

(Continued From First Page)

Bibb, the last box to report also showed a tie vote, 4 to 4.

The vote by boxes on the repeal follows: Comanche No. 1, for 149, against 189; Comanche No. 2, for 104, against 207; Hasse, for 26, against 8; Soda Springs, for 15, against 29; Dingler, for 6, against 14; Gustine, for 74, against 76; Fleming, for 18, against 23; Bibb, for 4, against 4; Energy, for 10, against 21; Lamkin, for 12, against 46; Macksville, for 5, against 16; Hazel Dell, for 20, against 13; Wilson, for 19, against 26; Proctor, for 42, against 63; Comyn, for 19, against 26; De Leon No. 15, for 82, against 164; Downing, for 16, against 21; Duster, for 15, against 44; Rucker, for 22, against 42; Sipe Springs, for 56, against 27; Shrum, for 15, against 15; Sidney, for 36, against 57; Whitville, for 12, against 10; Mercer Gap, for 10, against 15; Brushy Gap, for 8, against 15; Newburg, for 19, against 29; Beattie, for 30, against 29; Indian Mountain, for 13, against 5; Robinson Springs, for 8, against 45; Suez, for 12, against 21; Gap, for 17, against 10; De Leon No. 33, for 84, against 129. Total, for 988, against 1458.

Blanket

Mrs. Noel Hayes and children of Olney spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Crisp.

The Baptist revival which was in progress last week at the Union Tabernacle closed Sunday evening. Rev. Homer T. Crimm, the pastor, did the preaching.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Jones, J. A. Kesler, T. E. Levisay, Virgil Parson and Charlie Crouch left Thursday for Detroit, Michigan, where they purchased two new school buses and they drove them back.

Mrs. John Reed and son of Graham spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Crisp.

Miss Audie Lee Austin spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Patterson returned home last week from an extended visit with his parents, in Tennessee.

Mrs. M. T. Bowden and daughter, Miss Rose, of Brownwood visited Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Routh Sunday.

Bill Heliant and others from Alabama are visiting his sister, Mrs. M. F. Dossey and family.

Contract Is Let On Highway 74a In Mills County

Grading and drainage structure on about 12 miles of Highway 74a was contracted by the State Highway Commission last Tuesday.

The contract covers the section between Goldthwaite and the Lampasas County line and calls for $146,627.

Judge Chesley, of Hamilton Died August 21

Judge H. E. Chesley, of Hamilton, father of Court Reporter, Hervey Chesley, died at Hamilton August 21st.

Judge Chesley was a former County Attorney and member of the Legislature and practiced law in Hamilton for many years. He was Vice-President of the Hamilton National Bank and a director of the Perry National Bank of Hamilton.

Miss Sarah Burton Elected to Position In Local Schools

Miss Sarah Burton was elected recently by the Comanche Board of Education to a place in the grades of the City Schools to fill a vacancy caused by the resignation of Miss Gaynelle Caulty who for some time has been receiving treatment in a Dallas hospital.

Miss Cauley has been with the schools here for several years and is a graduate of Comanche High School and later attended John Tarleton College, the University of Texas and S. M. U. She was regarded as an excellent teacher.

Miss Burton is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Burton of Newburg. She was an honor graduate of Comanche High and later attended Baylor University at Waco for four years. She was graduated with honors last June, having completed her work for the degree at Christmas. She later served as deputy in the County Tax Collector's office. Miss Burton was active in student affairs both in high school and the university.

JEWELRY BARGAINS

I am leaving town soon, and am offering some real bargains in jewelry, etc. Anyone who has repair work in my shop will please call for same at once.—J. B. Hamilton, Jeweler. (11)

Personal Mention

Mrs. Ruth Ellis and son, who have been visiting her mother, Mrs. Dan Long, have returned to their home in Arizona.

Mrs. T. L. Crabb and son, Thomas of Dallas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Sloan.

Mrs. M. Wilhelm of Dallas visited Mrs. P. C. Sloan last week. J. H. Hannah of Dallas visited P. C. Sloan and family last week.

Mrs. Horace Kullenberg of Austin was a Comanche visitor last week.

Henry Huffman left Monday for a visit to Carlsbad Cavern.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Card spent part of this week in Comanche with her sisters, Mrs. John Cunningham and Mrs. H. Burks.

Mr. and Mrs. Truett Cone of Wichita Falls spent Sunday in Comanche with Mr. and Mrs. Jess Odell and other relatives.

T. R. Moore of Stephenville spent the week end here with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Moore.

Miss Laura Harris and Mrs. Forrest Holiday of McAllen spent the week end in Comanche with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Harris.

Joe Wagner, who recently received his degree from Howard Payne College has been elected teacher of the sixth and seventh grades of the Pear Valley School near Brady.

C. F. Williams received a message last week that his brother, T. H. Williams had died at his home at Robertsville, Alabama. The former with his son, Hugh, visited the latter recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Hill of Los Angeles, California and Oscar Hill of Birmingham, Alabama spent last week here with their mother, Mrs. Lizzie Hill.

Thaddeus Harris and family of Elvasville spent the week end here with his sister, Mrs. W. P. Duckett.

H. L. Stewart, Marion Wilkerson, Bob Lane, John Burton, D. Isham and Mobe Scott went to Fort Worth Monday to attend a meeting in connection with the farm loan associations.

Mrs. J. D. Couch of Abilene visited her sister, Mrs. E. L. Wallace this week.

Mrs. Port Cash and son, Gene, of Hamilton spent the week end in Comanche with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Glasgow and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Love spent Sunday at Winchel fishing.

Joe Hamilton returned Saturday from Mount Pleasant and will move his jewelry store to that city September 1st.

A. J. Blevins and Nap Thomas left Sunday for a visit to Hot Springs, Arkansas and other points.

Alma Jean Allen is at home after receiving treatment in a Dallas sanitarium.

Mrs. Marshall Barcroft, accompanied by Mrs. Paul Hicks of Groesbeck, visited Mrs. Elmo Sleight at Lake Charles, La., last week.

J. W. Moore of Lampasas and Burnett, former Comanche merchant, is in Comanche visiting John Northcutt and other relatives. Mr. Moore said that his wife, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Hall, a pioneer Comanche County family, died about nine years ago.

Mrs. W. W. Cox of Brady spent the week end in Comanche with her father, L. E. Grainger.

Dove Hunters to Run the Risk of Federal Arrest

Texas hunters, who planned to shoot doves during September, will run the risk of arrest by agents of the United States Department of Justice. This was the warning issued Tuesday by Don A. Gilchrist, regional director for the United States Biological Survey with offices in Albuquerque, N. M.

The Texas season on doves is September and October. The federal season is Oct. 1 to Jan. 15. State officials have announced they will not attempt to enforce the federal law in September which conflicts with the state season. Gilchrist, however, announced that federal agents would.

Mrs. D. L. Hurt Is Buried Monday

Mrs. D. L. Hurt, 33, of Sidney, died at the family residence at 8:00 p. m. Sunday. Funeral services were held at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon at Stag Creek Cemetery with Rev. Gordon Barrett of Comanche officiating.

Mrs. Hurt was born at Mar in Brown County, June 12, 1902, and at the age of six moved to Sidney where she made her home the remainder of her life. Formerly Miss Mabel Elliott, she was married to D. L. Hurt, February 2, 1930. She was a member of the Baptist Church for 18 years.

She is survived by her husband and a son, Louis, 2; three sisters, Mrs. Lillie Powers of Hasse, Mrs. C. L. Beard of Comanche, and Mrs. Alex Jones of Dodd City, Fannin County and two brothers, W. M. Elliott of Comanche and Carl Elliott of Oklahoma City.

Pall bearers were W. M. Elliott, Bud Power, W. G. Hurt, J. E. Hurt, J. L. Woosley, C. L. Beard and D. C. Summers.

July Supplants June As Month of Brides Here

Brides in Comanche County are no longer partial to the month of June according to Hollis Burton, County Clerk, who produces statistics to prove his statement.

During June in the Clerk's office only 15 marriage licenses were sold, while 25 were sold in July. August sales already have passed the June output, Mr. Burton said.

While the sale of marriage licenses are on the increase the demand for divorces is less in the county according to Ben Wilhelm, District Clerk. For the Fall term of Court which opens in October, fewer applications have been made for divorces than had been made at this time last year, Wilhelm stated.

Mrs. C. B. Lear and daughters, Mrs. Jack Hode and two children, Mrs. A. Jennings and three children and Mrs. Ike Marks of Houston; Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Wharton and two children of Stephenville, Mrs. Lynn Vaughn and daughter of Abilene, and Rev. W. L. Wharton, Jr., of Brownwood, visited their sister and aunt, Mrs. J. M. Bowman the past week.

Mrs. Kate Nance of Hot Springs Arkansas is visiting her sister, Mrs. A. J. Blevins.

COMPLETE BEAUTY SERVICE

From Head to Toe!

NOW—
Is the Time to Get Your Permanent For School and College

Try Our—
FACIAL SERVICE

We have a Complete Line of the Famous Kosan Cosmetics

You Are Always Welcome at

Marchel's Beauty Parlor

East Side Square Comanche

STARRS

1c to $1 Store

NEW GOODS ARE HERE!!

Our Store is Filled With the New Goods that Have Just Arrived.—You Are Invited to Come in and See Them.

SPECIALS FOR—

Saturday & Monday

Pretty Fancy Waste Baskets 9c

New Fancy Buttons, Per Card 5c

Big Line New Pictures 10c

Men's Sun Hats, Big Close Out Price, Choice 10c

Plates, Full Size 9c

Big Lot Fast Color Prints 10c

A Dandy Broom 25c

Baby Booties .. 10c. Rubber Crib Sheets .. 15c
Baby Blankets 19c

See the Big Line of School Supplies!

Penny Removed From Throat of Van Dyke Child

Physicians at a Gorman sanitarium safely removed a penny from its lodging place in the throat of year-old Bunetta Hendrix last Friday.

The child is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendrix of the Van Dyke community, and suffered no ill effects from swallowing the coin.

REMOVAL NOTICE

I have moved my office to the west end of the New Higginbotham Building. Have installed new X-Ray equipment.

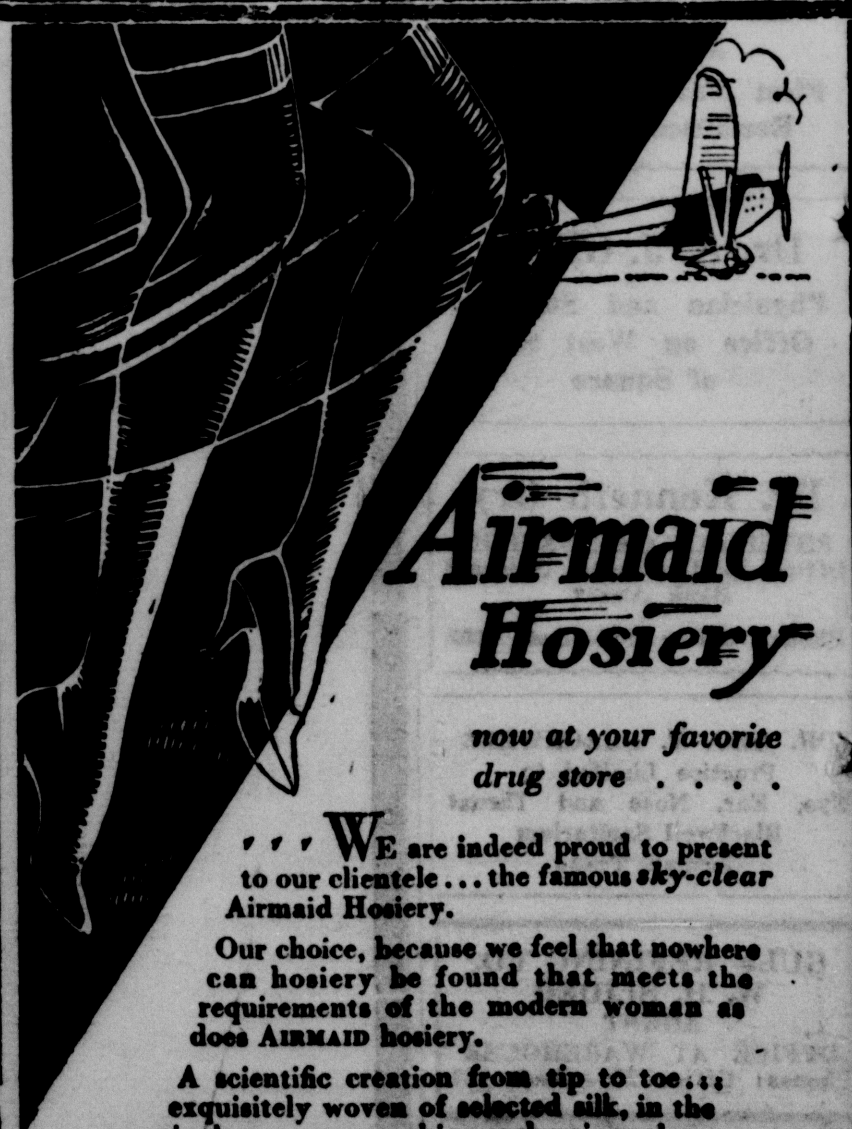

DR. LEVERETT HILL.

Mrs. L. T. Shook and daughters, Roberta and Charlotte of Dallas are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Layne.

Mrs. J. H. Williams left Tuesday with her son, Bob Williams and his family for McFarland, California, where she will spend a year.

NUT SHOP
Come to this store for Double-Kay Nuts. We toast fresh with creamery butter—so different from ordinary salted nuts merely cooked in oil.

Service DRUG STORE

now at your favorite drug store . . .

... We are indeed proud to present to our clientele... the famous sky-clear Airmaid Hosiery.

Our choice, because we feel that nowhere can hosiery be found that meets the requirements of the modern woman as does AIRMAID hosiery.

A scientific creation from tip to toe... exquisitely woven of selected silk, in the ringless manner, making each pair as clear as the clearest sky. AIRMAIDS are serviceable... presenting such features as the "heel within the heel" and a garter top which insures against runs. AIRMAIDS are correctly proportioned giving perfect size in every pair. AIRMAIDS are always fresh... because they are sealed in cellophane.

We invite you to come and see the new sky-clear Airmaids... Always at your command 16 hours a day.

$1.00 AND $1.35 PER PAIR

We Also Invite You to See Our THRIFTY HOSIERY at 79c pair—"True to It's Name" IDEAL FOR SCHOOL WEAR

JOIN OUR HOSIERY CLUB

When you have purchased 12 pairs of Airmaid or Thrifty Hose, or your friends have had enough purchases credited to you to make a total of 12 sales, we will give you one pair of hose absolutely FREE. Ask us for further details.

THE PRESCRIPTION DRUGGIST
Service DRUG STORE